Jobless Pay Need Cited By Mitchell

Labor Secretary Urges Fast Action By House Group

WASHINGTON (AP) — Fast action to meet "an immediate and urgent need" for unemployment benefits was urged on a critical House committee Friday by Secretary of Labor Mitchell.

Mitchell, opening witness at a Ways and Means Committee hearing on President Eisenhower's proposal for temporarily extending the duration of jobless benefit payments, ran into extended questioning by both Democratic and Republican members.

The labor secretary said the number of unemployed reaching the end of their benefits is expected to show a sharp upturn this month.

Total Goes Up

He placed the number at 147,000 in January and 145,500 in February, and said the March figure is expected to total 187,500. For the entire year, he estimated the total will be 2,300,000.

Mitchell said the administration's program for limited extension of benefits under existing state systems "will take care of the major part" of the current unemployment problem.

Describing the situation as "a matter of national concern" he said: "The assistance which these benefits will bring to the individual and his family will, by sustaining purchasing power, also assist in bolstering the economy."

Eisenhower has proposed advancing federal funds to finance a 50 per cent increase in the number of weeks unemployed workers covered by jobless insurance could draw benefits. This would mean an additional 13 weeks in states having a 26-week benefit period, for example.

Voices Reluctance

Rep. Byrnes (R-Wis) voiced reluctance to embark the government on an emergency program, saying that once started "they're very seldom terminated."

Mitchell agreed that, "Certainly we run that risk, but I don't think that should be the reason for not doing something now."

"I think that by next spring our economic situation will be greatly improved," he said.

Baby Is Born In Traffic Jam

NEW YORK (AP)—Fireman John Nagle delivered a baby in the middle of a big traffic jam Friday.

The fireman and his wife got an urgent plea from their downstairs neighbor, Mrs. Bridget Van Slyck, 30, mother of three daughters. The three set ouf in the Nagles' car.

They didn't reckon with the morning traffic. Three times they were halted by tieups and finally got stuck. A policeman began trying to open a path.

Then Mrs. Van Slyck said it was too late. With that, Nagle took over and helped deliver a boy. Afterward a police car got through to escort the group to a hospital, where mother and son were pronounced in good condition.

Said Nagle's wife, who is expecting her sixth child: "I couldn't help but marvel at his calm attitude at the time. Right now, he is near collapse."

Navy Sled Dog Is Given Discharge, Escapes Sale

WASHINGTON (AP)—Bravo, the sled dog, received his Navy discharge and formal orders Friday.

The young malemute, who until the last few weeks lived all his life at the South Pole, is being turned over to Lt. (j.g.) Jack Tuck.

Tuck fed, trained and practically convinced Bravo that he wasn't a dog but a man member of the Navy's antarctic expedition.

By virtue of the orders issued today, Bravo escaped sale as piece of government surplus property. This was brought about through the combined efforts of Secretary of Navy Thomas Gages; Rear Adm. C. C. Kirkpatrick, chief of information; the Navy Bureau of Supplies and Accounts, and various others.

Bravo now has a duly-documented certificate of "honorable discharge" and a set of orders.

"Upon receipt of these orders, and when directed by Lt. (j.g.) John Tuck, U. S. N. R., you will proceed to such place as Lt. Tuck shall direct, and upon arrival consider yourself discharged from active service in the United States Navy," the orders read.

"The chief of information takes pleasure in forwarding as enclosure your certificate of honorable discharge.

"All hands in the Navy wish you success and happiness in your career as a civilian. We are confident that, in civilian life, you will prove a good neighbor as you have, in Navy life, proved a good shipmate."

The Navy said Bravo and Tuck would be flown here from Rhode Island for the formal mustering out ceremony.

Boy 14, Takes An Unscheduled Rocket Flight

DETROIT (AP) — A 14-year-old Michigan youth has made what may well have been the world's first manned rocket flight.

The launching pad was the basement of a buddy's home. The flight was only three feet—"And it hurt like anything."

John Palmer Jr. was the surprised passenger. He and Edward Gardner, 15, were assembling the first stage of what was intended as a multistage rocket.

Palmer was pouring gun powder into a three-foot aluminum pipe. Palmer tilted the pipe so it would hold more powder. Suddenly this thing went off—and up. Palmer told police he grabbed it instinctively as it went.

It carried him to the ceiling. He got a badly burned left hand, and spent the night in a hospital.

Ike Is Urged To Sign Farm Support Freeze

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Eisenhower was urged Friday by a group of Republican senators to sign the one-year freeze on farm price supports which Congress passed last week.

Secretary of Agriculture Benson opposes the bill. It was freely predicted during congressional debate that Eisenhower would veto the measure if it passed.

A delegation of five GOP senators called on Eisenhower at the White House and asked him not to veto the bill. They said he gave them a sympathetic hearing but no promises.

Sen. Young of North Dakota, one of the five, told newsmen that Eisenhower appeared "more sympathetic to our viewpoint than he has in the past."

"But he didn't give any indication what he would do about a veto," Young added.

The GOP delegation represented a number of other Senate Republicans. In a party policy meeting this week, GOP senators voted 17-14 to urge Eisenhower not to kill the bill. The margin by which the measure passed Congress was nowhere near enough to override a veto.

Accompanying Young to the White House were Aiken of Vermont, Allott of Colorado, Carlson of Kansas and Mundt of South Dakota.

Some of the senators reported afterward that Eisenhower expressed himself as quite concerned about what the group said would be the Republican party's "deteriorating political situation" if the bill is vetoed.

Some Republicans fear a veto would have serious political consequences for GOP congressional candidates in farm states this November.

Eisenhower's press secretary, James C. Hagerty, told reporters the President probably will not act on the farm bill before next week. Benson already has issued orders for a reduction in dairy price supports effective next Tuesday, April 1.

Soviet Near Sending Man Into Space

MOSCOW (AP)—A leading Soviet scientist said Friday the Soviet Union is close to sending a man ir a rocket out into cosmic space and back.

Academician Anatoli Blagonravov said over Moscow radio the Soviet one-stage rocket that went about 295 miles in space Feb. 21 pointed the way.

Asserting that the rocket of more than 1½ tons landed back precisely where scientists planned, Blagonravov said that with addition of a second stage "one can imagine that the time is quite near for solution of such a problem as cosmic flight of a man in a rocket."

He added that if the Americans are proud that a one-stage rocket reached 217 miles altitude, the Soviet Union can be double proud of its achievement.

There has been a rash of scientific articles in the Soviet press recently. The Soviet Union launched Sputnik II last Nov. 3

Now, with three U.S earth satellites up, Russia may be planning a sensational new scientific achievement and Blagonravov's radio commentary may be another hint.

The statements Friday night of Prof. Anatoli Blagonravov, Soviet missile expert who said flight of a manned rocket appeared "quite near," bear out a study by William L. Ryan, AP foreign news analyst, published previously.

Ryan said Soviet hints suggest Russian scientists are working on something spectacular in a space offensive that Soviet politicians would use in the cold war.

Ryan noted that a new Soviet Sputnik on a grand scale would have enormous propaganda impact if it came just before a summit meeting sought by the Russians. He said guesses in Washington, based on intelligence information, suggested that the hinted new Sputnik might carry another dog passenger, successor to Laika in Sputnik II.

CAPE CANAVERAL, Fla. (AP) — The Air Force readied its Atlas ICBM No. 7 for launching Friday but called off the effort apparently within minutes of firing time.

Last Horse Unit Retired

BERLIN (AP)—The U. S Army retired its last horse unit with a respectful salute from infantrymen garrisoning this outpost city behind the Iron Curtain.

With bugles sounding "Boots and Saddles" for the last time on active service, the horse platoon of the 287th Military Police Co. stood formal retreat Friday beside an honor guard of the 6th Infantry.

A command citation was read praising the platoon for its loyal service.

The 31 horsemen led by Lt. Jeff G Roberts, of Reidsville, N. C, then passed in review. Some of the young troopers looked as if they were fighting to hold back tears.

In deactivating the platoon for economy reasons, the Army is writing finis to its cavalry tradition going back more than 150 years.

The Berlin horse platoon was organized in 1945 to patrol the forest border along the Soviet zone, and to put down possible Communist street rioting.

It never saw any more action than at the annual horse shows against British, French and West German riders.

Twenty-five of the 31 horses are being retained by the Army for recreational riding. The others are going to a German city government office.

Duel Is Stopped, Foes Later Slain

MONTEVIDEO, Uruguay (AP) — Seconds stopped a sabre duel Friday after both contestants suffered wounds but four hours later one of the duellists shot and killed his adversary and then took his own life.

Friends said Lt. Col. Luis Joaquin Villar, commander of an engineering unit, and Ernesto Alberto Dodo, civil secretary of the Uruguayan Fencing Federation, had a dispute involving Villar's wife.

After their duel was stopped, Villar went to Dodo's home, shot him to death, wounded Dodo's wife when she tried to intervene, then fled in a station wagon. Two miles away he put a bullet into his own head.

Troops Poised For Invasion Of Sumatra

SINGAPORE (AP)—A rebel agent said Friday night several thousand Indonesian government troops were poised for an invasion to capture Padang on Central Sumatra's west coast. He predicted tomorrow would be D-day.

A spokesman for Lt. Col Achmad Hussein, the rebel commander in Central Sumatra, said the invasion force had been massing on small islands off Padang for several days.

"The battle will be the turning point in the civil war launched by the Jakarta dictatorship," he said. "The revolutionary forces are determined to hold Padang and Bukittinggi at all costs."

Rebel sources said government troops originally planned an assault on Padang and nearby Bukittinggi, the rebel mountain capital, on March 17.

But the rebels created a diversion on March 16 with a mutiny in Medan, North Sumatra, in which Maj. Boyke Nainn Golan seized the city for a day. The government was forced to divert paratroops and seaborne troops to recapture the city.

Col. Maludin Simbolon, rebel foreign minister, who led a task force to aid Nainn Golan, rushed back to Padang Friday.

The bulk of Hussein's regular force of eight battalions are reported to have been concentrated in the Padang area all along.

Reuther Ire Raised At Labor Probe

Witness Flares Up At Goldwater For "Attempt To Smear"

WASHINGTON (AP) — Walter Reuther threw a "smear" charge at Sen. Goldwater (R-Ariz) Friday and then lectured him on the rough-and-tumble philosophy of labor warfare.

Reuther, red-haired president of the United Auto Workers, flared up when Goldwater produced a photograph of four men beating another man during the 1941 Ford strike at Detroit.

One of the four was purported to be Jess Ferrazza, now an administrative assistant to Emil Mazey, the UAW's secretary-treasurer. Goldwater displayed the picture in questioning whether the UAW was as opposed to violence as Reuther said it was.

His voice rising to a shout, the union leader told the senator he had to protest "when you try to smear our union when you get an isolated picture."

Winding Up Probe

The outburst occurred at a hearing of the Senate Rackets Committee, which is winding up a probe of the UAW strike against the Kohler Co., Kohler, Wis., plumbing equipment makers.

For almost two days Reuther had been a quiet and affable witness. His blast at Goldwater, an old political enemy, perked up the well-filled hearing room. At one point the exchange brought a burst of applause.

Goldwater's picture, Reuther said, did not reflect that unionists were beaten up by "gangsters" hired by Harry Bennett, then head of the Ford plant police.

"They beat us up," Reuther said. "The police wouldn't protect us . we had to defend ourselves. Sure that was wrong. But how did we get into that sort of thing?"

Bennett, Reuther swore, hired "thousands of gangsters," including men just paroled from prison. Four of them worked him over with blackjacks, Reuther continued, and he learned that one of them had said "There was nothing personal in it. Mr Bennett gave us that as an assignment."

Man Who Was Shot

"You're looking at a man who was shot," Reuther told Goldwater. He said gunmen hired by management did the shooting but did not say what management.

"You get a picture of Walter Reuther beating someone and I'll get a dozen of Walter Reuther being beaten," he said.

Reuther went on to say Bennett had been eliminated from the Ford picture by Mrs. Edsel Ford and others in the family, and "thank God" for that.

Goldwater listened impassively to the flow of words. Then, as Reuther appeared to be pausing for breath, he cut in with: "I think you're right. Let's get up to date."

It was then that the spectators applauded.

Reuther and Goldwater also disagreed about Kohler strikers refusing to patronize Sheboygan, Wis., grocery stores in which Wisconsin Circuit Judge F. W Schlicting had an interest. Schlicting had sentenced a UAW man to prison on charges growing out of a strike incident.

Goldwater suggested this was applying pressure or punishment on a judge for making a decision the UAW considered unfavorable, and trying to influence future court decisions.

Reuther said the strikers "were acting like ordinary people do when they are agitated."

Liberal Party Gains Seat In London Election

LONDON (AP)—Britain's reviving Liberal party wrested a parliamentary seat from the ruling Conservatives Friday in a special election, handing a new setback to the Macmillan government.

The Tory defeat in the North Devon farming district of Torrington set off fresh demands in the House of Commons that the government resign and call a general election. The district long has been a Conservative stronghold.

Conservative Chairman Lord Hailsham flatly rejected the demands.

"We will not be deterred from continuing to pursue our policies in the interests of the safety and stability of the country," he said in a statement from party headquarters.

Torrington is the third successive defeat for the Conservatives in special elections in the past six weeks. The Laborites, the main opposition, won the other two elections.

But the government was reported more determined than ever to run out its full term of office over the next 18 months and try in the meantime to win back the voters' favor.

Man Admits Jewelry Thefts

DALLAS, Tex. (AP)—A 24-year-old man has admitted two thefts of jewelry valued at a total of $95,000, Capt. Walter Fannin said Friday.

The man, Billy John Veal, refused to take a lie detector test but confessed orally, Fannin said.

Irving Tishman of New York City reported a case containing jewelry worth $35,000 was taken Feb. 25 from the airlines office of the Statler Hilton Hotel here.

A salesman for the I&H Flyer Co. of New York reported a case containing $60,000 in jewelry was snatched from him at Shreveport, La., on Feb. 24.

Veal was brought here from Tyler, Tex., where he and another man were charged with the $88 burglary of a cafe.

House Group Skeptical Of Plan's Value

Committee Approves $840 Million Act, Flays Farm Policy

WASHINGTON (AP)—An administration plan for a 840 million dollar spending speedup was approved by the House Appropriations Committee Friday, but with an expression of skepticism that it would do very much to end the recession.

The Democratic-led committee also criticized Eisenhower administration farm policies as it voted $3,216,988,539 for the Agriculture Department for the coming fiscal year.

Both committee actions are subject to House approval next week, and Senate action later.

In Line With Request

The spending speedup would apply to the purchase of supplies and equipment by various government agencies. It was in line with a White House request made two days ago and was designed, the committee said to "stimulate business activity and employment."

It would allow civilian agencies to spend during the remaining 90 days of the present fiscal year half of the approximately $1,680,000,000 budgeted for purchasing supplies and equipment during the fiscal year starting July 1.

Actually, the committee said, the agencies probably won't be able to spend more than 200 million in the next three months.

The committee said it acted promptly on the speedup request because of "the serious unemployment and adverse business situation confronting the country."

In approving the Agriculture Department's money, the committee said the economic slump could be attributed mainly to depressed farm income.

Off-Farm Employment

It said the department has been aiming its efforts toward "urging farm families to obtain off-farm employment and to move off their small farms."

"As a matter of fact it may soon be necessary to start thinking in terms of moving people back to the farms where they can at least find food and shelter," the committee commented.

It said the economic plight of farmers has worsened since the Eisenhower administration took over, while "the take of the middleman between the farmer and the consumer has continued to increase and the consumer has received no cash benefit."

Flapping Plates Nab Two Thieves

CHICAGO (AP)—A traffic policeman reported he found a $1,400 treasure chest of stolen coins in the trunk of an auto he stopped Friday. The car's license plates were flapping.

Two occupants, Edward Moran, 20, and his brother, Patrick, 17, were quoted by Policeman Clarence Braasch as admitting that the treasure—a toolbox containing 150 pounds of coins—was taken in a burglary from a currency exchange.

Braasch said the car also yielded two pistols, a portable radio and a woman's coat.

Actor Oversleeps, City Puts Up Hated Lamppost

BUSHEY HEATH, England (AP)—Veteran actor A. E. Matthews overslept Friday and some early rising men in overalls planted that offensive lamppost in front of his house.

For two weeks the 88-year-old actor had been feuding with workmen of the Bushey Heath Council who have been trying to erect what he called a gosh-awful, modern concrete monstrosity right outside the door of his 300-year-old cottage.

The workmen dug a hole. Matthews foxed them by putting a Chippendale chair over it and sitting down very firmly. Nothing could move him, not even the police because they didn't have the right sort of papers to become violent.

Mrs. Matthews brought out brandy and milk, and the watch on the hole became a 24-hour mission—almost.

But even the most faithful sentinel has to sleep some time, and Matthews did last night.

This morning Mrs. Matthews parted the curtains, and the dastardly deed has been done. The workmen must have started at the crack of dawn.

"I have never known council workmen to start a job so early," said Mrs. Matthews.

"A gibbet, that's what it is, and I suppose they would like to suspend me from it," wailed Matthews.

What happens next was a little unclear. Matthews thought about an ax, but concrete is tough chopping. A village councilman said the incident is closed—it has planted its last post in its lighting program.

Now, with three U.S earth satellites up, Russia may be planning a sensational new scientific achievement and Blagonravov's radio commentary may be another hint.

The statements Friday night of Prof. Anatoli Blagonravov, Soviet missile expert who said flight of a manned rocket appeared "quite near," bear out a study by William L. Ryan, AP foreign news analyst, published previously.

Ryan said Soviet hints suggest Russian scientists are working on something spectacular in a space offensive that Soviet politicians would use in the cold war.

Ryan noted that a new Soviet Sputnik on a grand scale would have enormous propaganda impact if it came just before a summit meeting sought by the Russians. He said guesses in Washington, based on intelligence information, suggested that the hinted new Sputnik might carry another dog passenger, successor to Laika in Sputnik II.

Last Horse Unit Retired

BERLIN (AP)—The U. S Army retired its last horse unit with a respectful salute from infantrymen garrisoning this outpost city behind the Iron Curtain.

With bugles sounding "Boots and Saddles" for the last time on active service, the horse platoon of the 287th Military Police Co. stood formal retreat Friday beside an honor guard of the 6th Infantry.

A command citation was read praising the platoon for its loyal service.

The 31 horsemen led by Lt. Jeff G Roberts, of Reidsville, N. C. then passed in review. Some of the young troopers looked as if they were fighting to hold back tears.

In deactivating the platoon for economy reasons, the Army is writing finis to its cavalry tradition going back more than 150 years.

The Berlin horse platoon was organized in 1945 to patrol the forest border along the Soviet zone, and to put down possible Communist street rioting.

It never saw any more action than at the annual horse shows against British, French and West German riders.

Duel Is Stopped, Foes Later Slain

MONTEVIDEO, Uruguay (AP) — Seconds stopped a sabre duel Friday after both contestants suffered wounds but four hours later one of the duellists shot and killed his adversary and then took his own life.

Friends said Lt. Col. Luis Joaquin Villar, commander of an engineering unit, and Ernesto Alberto Dodo, civil secretary of the Uruguayan Fencing Federation, had a dispute involving Villar's wife.

After their duel was stopped, Villar went to Dodo's home, shot him to death, wounded Dodo's wife when she tried to intervene, then fled in a station wagon. Two miles away he put a bullet into his own head.

Troops Poised For Invasion Of Sumatra

SINGAPORE (AP)—A rebel agent said Friday night several thousand Indonesian government troops were poised for an invasion to capture Padang on Central Sumatra's west coast. He predicted tomorrow would be D-day.

A spokesman for Lt. Col Achmad Hussein, the rebel commander in Central Sumatra, said the invasion force had been massing on small islands off Padang for several days.

"The battle will be the turning point in the civil war launched by the Jakarta dictatorship," he said. "The revolutionary forces are determined to hold Padang and Bukittinggi at all costs."

Rebel sources said government troops originally planned an assault on Padang and nearby Bukittinggi, the rebel mountain capital, on March 17.

But the rebels created a diversion on March 16 with a mutiny in Medan, North Sumatra, in which Maj. Boyke Nainn Golan seized the city for a day. The government was forced to divert paratroops and seaborne troops to recapture the city.

Col. Maludin Simbolon, rebel foreign minister, who led a task force to aid Nainn Golan, rushed back to Padang Friday.

The bulk of Hussein's regular force of eight battalions are reported to have been concentrated in the Padang area all along.

Garfield Hospital Closes Its Doors

WASHINGTON (AP)—Garfield Memorial Hospital went out of existence Friday after 74 years of service.

Founded in 1884 and named in memory of President James A. Garfield, it has merged with Emergency Hospital and from now on its medical and nursing staff will serve in the new Washington Hospital Center on the grounds of the Soldiers Home.

Garfield stopped admitting new patients March 20. Friday only 23 patients remained to be transferred to the new facilities.

EAST PEORIA, Ill. (AP)—A two-year-old boy drowned Friday in a cesspool while his mother worked nearby.

The baby crawled to a broken concrete cover of the pool and dropped through a small opening.

Reuther Ire Raised At Labor Probe

Witness Flares Up At Goldwater For "Attempt To Smear"

WASHINGTON (AP) — Walter Reuther threw a "smear" charge at Sen. Goldwater (R-Ariz) Friday and then lectured him on the rough-and-tumble philosophy of labor warfare.

Reuther, red-haired president of the United Auto Workers, flared up when Goldwater produced a photograph of four men beating another man during the 1941 Ford strike at Detroit.

One of the four was purported to be Jess Ferrazza, now an administrative assistant to Emil Mazey, the UAW's secretary-treasurer. Goldwater displayed the picture in questioning whether the UAW was as opposed to violence as Reuther said it was.

His voice rising to a shout, the union leader told the senator he had to protest "when you try to smear our union when you get an isolated picture."

Winding Up Probe

The outburst occurred at a hearing of the Senate Rackets Committee, which is winding up a probe of the UAW strike against the Kohler Co., Kohler, Wis., plumbing equipment makers.

For almost two days Reuther had been a quiet and affable witness. His blast at Goldwater, an old political enemy, perked up the well-filled hearing room. At one point the exchange brought a burst of applause.

Goldwater's picture, Reuther said, did not reflect that unionists were beaten up by "gangsters" hired by Harry Bennett, then head of the Ford plant police.

"They beat us up," Reuther said. "The police wouldn't protect us . we had to defend ourselves. Sure that was wrong. But how did we get into that sort of thing?"

Bennett, Reuther swore, hired "thousands of gangsters," including men just paroled from prison. Four of them worked him over with blackjacks, Reuther continued, and he learned that one of them had said "There was nothing personal in it. Mr Bennett gave us that as an assignment."

Man Who Was Shot

"You're looking at a man who was shot," Reuther told Goldwater. He said gunmen hired by management did the shooting but did not say what management.

"You get a picture of Walter Reuther beating someone and I'll get a dozen of Walter Reuther being beaten," he said.

Reuther went on to say Bennett had been eliminated from the Ford picture by Mrs. Edsel Ford and others in the family, and "thank God" for that.

Goldwater listened impassively to the flow of words. Then, as Reuther appeared to be pausing for breath, he cut in with: "I think you're right. Let's get up to date."

It was then that the spectators applauded.

Reuther and Goldwater also disagreed about Kohler strikers refusing to patronize Sheboygan, Wis., grocery stores in which Wisconsin Circuit Judge F. W Schlicting had an interest. Schlicting had sentenced a UAW man to prison on charges growing out of a strike incident.

Goldwater suggested this was applying pressure or punishment on a judge for making a decision the UAW considered unfavorable, and trying to influence future court decisions.

Reuther said the strikers "were acting like ordinary people do when they are agitated."

Housewives Plan Meat Boycott

ONTARIO, Calif. (AP)—Mrs. Earl Shaw is organizing housewives to boycott fresh meat.

She said that two months ago she could buy ground beef for 25 cents a pound but now it costs 45 cents.

She said she hopes to start the boycott April 1 to reduce fresh meat prices. "We want every housewife to call five of her friends and so on."

Liberal Party Gains Seat In London Election

LONDON (AP)—Britain's reviving Liberal party wrested a parliamentary seat from the ruling Conservatives Friday in a special election, handing a new setback to the Macmillan government.

The Tory defeat in the North Devon farming district of Torrington set off fresh demands in the House of Commons that the government resign and call a general election. The district long has been a Conservative stronghold.

Conservative Chairman Lord Hailsham flatly rejected the demands.

"We will not be deterred from continuing to pursue our policies in the interests of the safety and stability of the country," he said in a statement from party headquarters.

Torrington is the third successive defeat for the Conservatives in special elections in the past six weeks. The Laborites, the main opposition, won the other two elections.

But the government was reported more determined than ever to run out its full term of office over the next 18 months and try in the meantime to win back the voters' favor.

Man Admits Jewelry Thefts

DALLAS, Tex. (AP)—A 24-year-old man has admitted two thefts of jewelry valued at a total of $95,000, Capt. Walter Fannin said Friday.

The man, Billy John Veal, refused to take a lie detector test but confessed orally, Fannin said.

Irving Tishman of New York City reported a case containing jewelry worth $35,000 was taken Feb. 25 from the airlines office of the Statler Hilton Hotel here.

A salesman for the I&H Flyer Co. of New York reported a case containing $60,000 in jewelry was snatched from him at Shreveport, La., on Feb. 24.

Veal was brought here from Tyler, Tex., where he and another man were charged with the $88 burglary of a cafe.

House Group Skeptical Of Plan's Value

Committee Approves $840 Million Act, Flays Farm Policy

WASHINGTON (AP)—An administration plan for a 840 million dollar spending speedup was approved by the House Appropriations Committee Friday, but with an expression of skepticism that it would do very much to end the recession.

The Democratic-led committee also criticized Eisenhower administration farm policies as it voted $3,216,988,539 for the Agriculture Department for the coming fiscal year.

Both committee actions are subject to House approval next week, and Senate action later.

In Line With Request

The spending speedup would apply to the purchase of supplies and equipment by various government agencies. It was in line with a White House request made two days ago and was designed, the committee said to "stimulate business activity and employment."

It would allow civilian agencies to spend during the remaining 90 days of the present fiscal year half of the approximately $1,680,000,000 budgeted for purchasing supplies and equipment during the fiscal year starting July 1.

Actually, the committee said, the agencies probably won't be able to spend more than 200 million in the next three months.

The committee said it acted promptly on the speedup request because of "the serious unemployment and adverse business situation confronting the country."

In approving the Agriculture Department's money, the committee said the economic slump could be attributed mainly to depressed farm income.

Off-Farm Employment

It said the department has been aiming its efforts toward "urging farm families to obtain off-farm employment and to move off their small farms."

"As a matter of fact it may soon be necessary to start thinking in terms of moving people back to the farms where they can at least find food and shelter," the committee commented.

It said the economic plight of farmers has worsened since the Eisenhower administration took over, while "the take of the middleman between the farmer and the consumer has continued to increase and the consumer has received no cash benefit."

Flapping Plates Nab Two Thieves

CHICAGO (AP)—A traffic policeman reported he found a $1,400 treasure chest of stolen coins in the trunk of an auto he stopped Friday. The car's license plates were flapping.

Two occupants, Edward Moran, 20, and his brother, Patrick, 17, were quoted by Policeman Clarence Braasch as admitting that the treasure—a toolbox containing 150 pounds of coins—was taken in a burglary from a currency exchange.

Braasch said the car also yielded two pistols, a portable radio and a woman's coat.

Actor Oversleeps, City Puts Up Hated Lamppost

BUSHEY HEATH, England (AP)—Veteran actor A. E. Matthews overslept Friday and some early rising men in overalls planted that offensive lamppost in front of his house.

For two weeks the 88-year-old actor had been feuding with workmen of the Bushey Heath Council who have been trying to erect what he called a gosh-awful, modern concrete monstrosity right outside the door of his 300-year-old cottage.

The workmen dug a hole. Matthews foxed them by putting a Chippendale chair over it and sitting down very firmly. Nothing could move him, not even the police because they didn't have the right sort of papers to become violent.

Mrs. Matthews brought out brandy and milk, and the watch on the hole became a 24-hour mission—almost.

But even the most faithful sentinel has to sleep some time, and Matthews did last night.

This morning Mrs. Matthews parted the curtains, and the dastardly deed has been done. The workmen must have started at the crack of dawn.

"I have never known council workmen to start a job so early," said Mrs. Matthews.

"A gibbet, that's what it is, and I suppose they would like to suspend me from it," wailed Matthews.

What happens next was a little unclear. Matthews thought about an ax, but concrete is tough chopping. A village councilman said the incident is closed—it has planted its last post in its lighting program.

France Forges Ahead With Atomic Program

PARIS (AP) — France is forging ahead with an atomic development program but an official denied Friday that a nuclear device might be exploded within a week.

U.S. Rep. Price (D-Ill) said in Washington that France might test an atomic device in the next few days. A French Atomic Energy Commission spokesman denied this.

The denial is not regarded as an indication, however, that France will refrain from entering the nuclear bomb field. Recent progress in atomic development in the industrial as well as the military field is believed to have been great.

Exploding a nuclear bomb probably would give France additional prestige as a world power, but no full-scale manufacturing of weapons is expected.

Mass production would require large quantities of uranium 235, which France does not have. Two and a half tons of the mineral recently were bought from the United States but U.S. law prohibits its use for military purposes.

The French army has been conducting experiments with secret weapons at the Colomb-Bechar testing grounds in the heart of the Sahara. There has been no official word about the nature of the tests.

House Offered Burned Couple

ANNAPOLIS (AP) — A two-bedroom house has been offered rent-free for a year to the young couple who lost three of their four children in a fire which destroyed their home here last Thursday.

The offer of the $10,000 unfurnished home was made by officials of the nearby Victor Haven Homes development.

Earlier this week Mrs. F. W. Grimes of Edgewater announced plans for a drive to raise money to buy a plot of ground and build a home for the couple, Mr. and Mrs. Norman Tucker.

Tucker, 39-year-old bulldozer operator, his wife Edith, 36, and their 18-month-old daughter, Betty Lou, were burned on more than 50 per cent of their bodies in the fire which leveled their frame bungalow and took the lives of their three older daughters.

Lawyer Backs Rival In Bid For Congress

BALTIMORE, (AP)—Congressional candidate James B. McCloskey filed suit today to try to insure that a political rival will appear on the ballot with him in the May 20 primary.

McCloskey, an attorney, brought the action in Baltimore City Court in behalf of his client, Louis W. Collier.

Both have filed as candidates in the Republican Fourth Congressional District. McCloskey resides in the all-Baltimore Fourth but Collier lives at Pikesville in the Second, which includes Harford, Carroll and Baltimore counties.

The attorney general's office earlier this week held that Collier's entry was illegal and refused to certify him as a candidate.

McCloskey then offered to defend Collier's right to run, contending the attorney general's position was unconstitutional.

Collier, who works for a credit counseling firm, accepted his rival's offer of free legal aid and McCloskey's writ of mandamus action followed.

McCloskey points out in his suit that the U. S. Constitution states a member of the House of Representatives must be a resident of the state from which he files. It says nothing about districts.

The opinion from Atty. Gen. C. Ferdinand Sybert's office is based on a law enacted by the 1957 Legislature. This provides that a candidate must reside in the congressional district from which he files.

Project Discussed

Furnishing the dining room in the new convent was discussed at the meeting of the Ursuline Auxiliary, at which time it was announced that $160 was made on the card party sponsored recently by the group.

Mrs. Edward McNamee presided and appointed Mrs. Frank Simpson chairman of the nominating committee, which will report at the next meeting. Other members are Mrs. Charles Dodrill and Mrs. Charles Morris. The Ursuline Academy Glee Club, under the direction of Sister Duggera will present a program at the meeting.

The auxiliary will be hostess for the junior-senior prom on May 9 in the parish hall, and announcement was made that class night will be May 22. Father Sylvan, OFM Cap., offered prayer. The attendance award was won by the junior class mothers.

Small Mines Protest Safety Act Measure

WASHINGTON (AP)—Operators of small coal mines protested Friday against a bill to require them to comply with the Federal Coal Mine Safety Act.

B. F Reed, treasurer of the Turner-Elkhorn Coal Co. of Drift, Ky., told a Senate Labor subcommittee that "small mines are far safer than the large mines" regulated by the U. S Bureau of Mines.

He said the legislation is being pressed by the big operators, adding that "99 per cent of it is selfishness" rather than concern with safety.

Roland Price of Whitesburg, Ky., another small coal mine operator, said the United Mine Workers and the large producers are seeking to destroy the small producers "under the guise of safety."

UMW President John L. Lewis urged enactment of the bill in recent testimony. He said he thought 90 per cent of the coal producers, in terms of tonnage, supported the measure.

Under the safety act passed in 1952 all mines are subject to federal inspection but the government has no power to force compliance with its safety standards in mines employing 14 or less workers underground.

The bill under consideration would eliminate the exemption of these small mines from the enforcement provisions of the act.

Reed said small mines could not survive under such federal regulation, and told the subcommittee that in Kentucky the state has trained inspectors with authority to shut down any mine they find to be unsafe.

J. B Taggart of Norton, Va., president of the Wise Coal and Coke Co., said the purpose of the 1952 act was to prevent "major disasters," and was not intended to "eliminate the day to day accidents which unfortunately do occur in coal mines."

The bill, he said, would "extend the coverage of this act beyond its original purpose in the mistaken belief that it could correct a condition for which it admittedly was not designed."

He urged that "the problem be left with the individual states where it rightfully belongs."

Creed P. Kelly, chief mine inspector for Virginia, opposed the bill in a statement. He said the state is proud of its record in the mine safety field.

"We understand the special geological problems involved in mining coal in Virginia," he said. "We therefore feel that we are better equipped than any other agency to regulate the mines—and particularly the small mines — in our state."

"Apart from our strong conviction that we are fully capable of taking care of mine conditions in Virginia," he said, "we feel that to pass this proposed bill will close the small mines and throw our miners and their families upon relief."

Snow Foolin'

OKLAHOMA CITY (AP) — The owner of a small sports car thought he could get the best of the police by piling snow on the face of the parking meter so the officer couldn't see if time had run out.

When he returned later, he brushed the snow away from his windshield, and underneath was a parking ticket.

Careful Driver Gets Tagged At Interview

MEMPHIS, Tenn. (AP)—A police car pulled up behind Jim Breazeale when he parked his automobile.

An officer informed Breazeale he had just been selected one of the week's safest drivers. Could he go at once to a nearby radio station for an interview?

Breazeale could and did, feeling pretty good about the whole affair.

When he returned to his car there was another surprise awaiting him: A ticket for overtime parking.

W. C. Handy, Famed Blues Composer, Dies

NEW YORK (AP)—W. C Handy, 84, composer of the immortal "St. Louis Blues," died Friday. He was the man who shaped the rhythm of the Negro race into America's syncopated tempo of the blues.

"The songs of the South were pinin' to be written," Hardy once said in explanation of his success.

He based his blues compositions on folk songs he heard Negroes sing in Southern streets, railroad yards, factories. He said his race finds music all around—in the ripple of a brook, the sight of the wind in trees.

Handy was blind during the later years of his life. Three years ago a stroke confined him to a wheel chair.

Last Sunday night, Handy was taken from his Yonkers, N. Y, home to Sydenham Hospital with pneumonia. Complications ensued. For a time he seemed to be making progress.

Thursday the composer took a turn for the worse and was placed in an oxygen tent.

His wife and family were at his bedside when he died.

In St. Louis, a veteran disc jockey, Bill Wells, a friend and admirer of Handy, gave him an apt eulogy. When Wells learned Handy was dead, he devoted the last two hours of his all-night radio show to 40 different renditions of the "St. Louis Blues."

Handy had hoped to fly to St. Louis April 7 for the premiere of a movie based on his life and titled "St. Louis Blues."

Other classics among some 60 blues melodies Handy turned out during his lifetime included "Memphis Blues," and "Beale Street Blues," the latter named for the famous Negro street in Memphis.

Handy had six children by his first wife, Elizabeth, who died in 1937. Four of the children are still living. On Jan 1, 1954, at the age of 80, he married his long-time secretary, Irma Louise Logan.

France Forges Ahead With Atomic Program

PARIS (AP) — France is forging ahead with an atomic development program but an official denied Friday that a nuclear device might be exploded within a week.

U.S. Rep. Price (D-Ill) said in Washington that France might test an atomic device in the next few days. A French Atomic Energy Commission spokesman denied this.

The denial is not regarded as an indication, however, that France will refrain from entering the nuclear bomb field. Recent progress in atomic development in the industrial as well as the military field is believed to have been great.

Exploding a nuclear bomb probably would give France additional prestige as a world power, but no full-scale manufacturing of weapons is expected.

Mass production would require large quantities of uranium 235, which France does not have. Two and a half tons of the mineral recently were bought from the United States but U.S. law prohibits its use for military purposes.

The French army has been conducting experiments with secret weapons at the Colomb-Bechar testing grounds in the heart of the Sahara. There has been no official word about the nature of the tests.

House Offered Burned Couple

ANNAPOLIS (AP) — A two-bedroom house has been offered rent-free for a year to the young couple who lost three of their four children in a fire which destroyed their home here last Thursday.

The offer of the $10,000 unfurnished home was made by officials of the nearby Victor Haven Homes development.

Earlier this week Mrs. F. W. Grimes of Edgewater announced plans for a drive to raise money to buy a plot of ground and build a home for the couple, Mr. and Mrs. Norman Tucker.

Tucker, 39-year-old bulldozer operator, his wife Edith, 36, and their 18-month-old daughter, Betty Lou, were burned on more than 50 per cent of their bodies in the fire which leveled their frame bungalow and took the lives of their three older daughters.

DIES IN FALL — Annabelle Brack, 19-year-old daughter of a Modesto, Calif., attorney, died in a nine-floor fall at fashionable Finch College, New York City, yesterday. (AP Photofax).

Lawyer Backs Rival In Bid For Congress

BALTIMORE, (AP)—Congressional candidate James B. McCloskey filed suit today to try to insure that a political rival will appear on the ballot with him in the May 20 primary.

McCloskey, an attorney, brought the action in Baltimore City Court in behalf of his client, Louis W. Collier.

Both have filed as candidates in the Republican Fourth Congressional District. McCloskey resides in the all-Baltimore Fourth but Collier lives at Pikesville in the Second, which includes Harford, Carroll and Baltimore counties.

The attorney general's office earlier this week held that Collier's entry was illegal and refused to certify him as a candidate.

McCloskey then offered to defend Collier's right to run, contending the attorney general's position was unconstitutional.

Collier, who works for a credit counseling firm, accepted his rival's offer of free legal aid and McCloskey's writ of mandamus action followed.

McCloskey points out in his suit that the U. S. Constitution states a member of the House of Representatives must be a resident of the state from which he files. It says nothing about districts.

The opinion from Atty. Gen. C. Ferdinand Sybert's office is based on a law enacted by the 1957 Legislature. This provides that a candidate must reside in the congressional district from which he files.

Project Discussed

Furnishing the dining room in the new convent was discussed at the meeting of the Ursuline Auxiliary, at which time it was announced that $160 was made on the card party sponsored recently by the group.

Mrs. Edward McNamee presided and appointed Mrs. Frank Simpson chairman of the nominating committee, which will report at the next meeting. Other members are Mrs. Charles Dodrill and Mrs. Charles Morris. The Ursuline Academy Glee Club, under the direction of Sister Duggera will present a program at the meeting.

The auxiliary will be hostess for the junior-senior prom on May 9 in the parish hall, and announcement was made that class night will be May 22. Father Sylvan, OFM Cap., offered prayer. The attendance award was won by the junior class mothers.

Small Mines Protest Safety Act Measure

WASHINGTON (AP)—Operators of small coal mines protested Friday against a bill to require them to comply with the Federal Coal Mine Safety Act.

B. F. Reed, treasurer of the Turner-Elkhorn Coal Co. of Drift, Ky., told a Senate Labor subcommittee that "small mines are far safer than the large mines" regulated by the U. S Bureau of Mines.

He said the legislation is being pressed by the big operators, adding that "99 per cent of it is selfishness" rather than concern with safety.

Roland Price of Whitesburg, Ky., another small coal mine operator, said the United Mine Workers and the large producers are seeking to destroy the small producers "under the guise of safety."

UMW President John L. Lewis urged enactment of the bill in recent testimony. He said he thought 90 per cent of the coal producers, in terms of tonnage, supported the measure.

Under the safety act passed in 1952 all mines are subject to federal inspection but the government has no power to force compliance with its safety standards in mines employing 14 or less workers underground.

The bill under consideration would eliminate the exemption of these small mines from the enforcement provisions of the act.

Reed said small mines could not survive under such federal regulation, and told the subcommittee that in Kentucky the state has trained inspectors with authority to shut down any mine they find to be unsafe.

J. B Taggart of Norton, Va., president of the Wise Coal and Coke Co., said the purpose of the 1952 act was to prevent "major disasters," and was not intended to "eliminate the day to day accidents which unfortunately do occur in coal mines."

The bill, he said, would "extend the coverage of this act beyond its original purpose in the mistaken belief that it could correct a condition for which it admittedly was not designed."

He urged that "the problem be left with the individual states where it rightfully belongs."

Creed P. Kelly, chief mine inspector for Virginia, opposed the bill in a statement. He said the state is proud of its record in the mine safety field.

"We understand the special geological problems involved in mining coal in Virginia," he said. "We therefore feel that we are better equipped than any other agency to regulate the mines—and particularly the small mines — in our state."

"Apart from our strong conviction that we are fully capable of taking care of mine conditions in Virginia," he said, "we feel that to pass this proposed bill will close the small mines and throw our miners and their families upon relief."

Snow Foolin'

OKLAHOMA CITY (AP) — The owner of a small sports car thought he could get the best of the police by piling snow on the face of the parking meter so the officer couldn't see if time had run out.

When he returned later, he brushed the snow away from his windshield, and underneath was a parking ticket.

Careful Driver Gets Tagged At Interview

MEMPHIS, Tenn. (AP)—A police car pulled up behind Jim Breazeale when he parked his automobile.

An officer informed Breazeale he had just been selected one of the week's safest drivers. Could he go at once to a nearby radio station for an interview?

Breazeale could and did, feeling pretty good about the whole affair.

When he returned to his car there was another surprise awaiting him: A ticket for overtime parking.

W. C. Handy, Famed Blues Composer, Dies

NEW YORK (AP)—W. C Handy, 84, composer of the immortal "St. Louis Blues," died Friday. He was the man who shaped the rhythm of the Negro race into America's syncopated tempo of the blues.

"The songs of the South were pinin' to be written," Hardy once said in explanation of his success.

He based his blues compositions on folk songs he heard Negroes sing in Southern streets, railroad yards, factories. He said his race finds music all around—in the ripple of a brook, the sight of the wind in trees.

Handy was blind during the later years of his life. Three years ago a stroke confined him to a wheel chair.

Last Sunday night, Handy was taken from his Yonkers, N. Y. home to Sydenham Hospital with pneumonia. Complications ensued. For a time he seemed to be making progress.

Thursday the composer took a turn for the worse and was placed in an oxygen tent.

His wife and family were at his bedside when he died.

In St. Louis, a veteran disc jockey, Bill Wells, a friend and admirer of Handy, gave him an apt eulogy. When Wells learned Handy was dead, he devoted the last two hours of his all-night radio show to 40 different renditions of the "St. Louis Blues."

Handy had hoped to fly to St. Louis April 7 for the premiere of a movie based on his life and titled "St. Louis Blues."

Other classics among some 60 blues melodies Handy turned out during his lifetime included "Memphis Blues," and "Beale Street Blues," the latter named for the famous Negro street in Memphis.

Handy had six children by his first wife, Elizabeth, who died in 1937. Four of the children are still living. On Jan 1, 1954, at the age of 80, he married his long-time secretary, Irma Louise Logan.

Auxiliary To Buy Pins

Membership and past president pins will be purchased by the Bowman's Addition Fire Auxiliary. Plans also were made for a turkey supper for April 10.

Mrs. Gladys Alt applied for membership. Hostesses for the evening were Mrs. Twigg and Mrs. Dorothy Johnson.

I sat on the sands, watching the palm trees, the city silhouetted against the sky. And as I did, suddenly the city wasn't there any more. I saw only the palms.

It was like being transported to another time and place. I felt as if I were in old Jerusalem. It was the day when He was entering the city, and His devoted followers had strewn palm leaves in His path. In church, that morning, our minister had told us the story of Palm Sunday. Now I realized how much this message meant to me.

Watching the palms, I realized that all of us need help in understanding life's basic truths. We find that help in the Church. Then we can dwell upon what we have learned until it has full meaning for us . . . as Palm Sunday, now, has for me.

THE CHURCH FOR ALL . . . ALL FOR THE CHURCH

The Church is the greatest factor on earth for the building of character and good citizenship. It is a storehouse of spiritual values. Without a strong Church, neither democracy nor civilization can survive. There are four sound reasons why every person should attend services regularly and support the Church. They are: (1) For his own sake. (2) For his children's sake. (3) For the sake of his community and nation. (4) For the sake of the Church itself, which needs his moral and material support. Plan to go to church regularly and read your Bible daily.

I sat on the sands, watching the palm trees, the city silhouetted against the sky. And as I did, suddenly the city wasn't there any more. I saw only the palms.

It was like being transported to another time and place. I felt as if I were in old Jerusalem. It was the day when He was entering the city, and His devoted followers had strewn palm leaves in His path. In church, that morning, our minister had told us the story of Palm Sunday. Now I realized how much this message meant to me.

Watching the palms, I realized that all of us need help in understanding life's basic truths. We find that help in the Church. Then we can dwell upon what we have learned until it has full meaning for us . . . as Palm Sunday, now, has for me.

THE CHURCH FOR ALL . . . ALL FOR THE CHURCH

The Church is the greatest factor on earth for the building of character and good citizenship. It is a storehouse of spiritual values. Without a strong Church, neither democracy nor civilization can survive. There are four sound reasons why every person should attend services regularly and support the Church. They are: (1) For his own sake. (2) For his children's sake. (3) For the sake of his community and nation. (4) For the sake of the Church itself, which needs his moral and material support. Plan to go to church regularly and read your Bible daily.

Easter Tips For Baskets, Decorations

Once again it is time for the hardworking, useful egg to come out of the kitchen and play its annual glamorous Easter role. This time, however, it is just the shell which is colored and decorated to make gay Easter bunnies that can be used as combination party favors and place cards.

Save a quantity of egg shells before Easter by blowing the contents out of the egg. Make a small hole in each end of a raw egg and blow hard through one end until the egg is entirely out of the shell.

Color the shells in the usual way, being sure to drain them well. Cut ears from pink crepe paper and fasten onto the eggs with cement or modeling glue. Attach large fancy sequins for eyes, nose and mouth. Cut narrow pointed crepe paper strips for whiskers and fasten in place.

For each bunny, cut two circles from approximately ¾" thick Styrofoam the size of a teacup, or use an empty No. 2 can to press out the pieces—one for a base and the other to use upright as a body. Assemble the egg head, body and base with a pipe cleaner; or the pieces may be glued together. Place a sprig of flowers or small plume in the hole on top of the egg; tie narrow ribbon around the neck; and glue a small ball of cotton on back of the bunny for a tail.

Add Easter grass around the base and push extra sprigs of artificial flowers or small carrots into the outer edge. Curl a piece of pipe cleaner around an ice pick or skewer and insert in the base to hold a name card.

Children love to receive Easter baskets. Simple planning can make this cherished tradition lots more fun without being expensive. Here are a few helpful suggestions. You can make a basket from any small cardboard box. Cover the outside with crepe paper ruffled at the top. The basket handle can be made with a strip of thin cardboard also covered with crepe paper. Let the children help you. The whole family can have fun together making baskets for the Easter Bunny to fill.

Later, when the baskets are being filled, remember to include a few packages of the child's favorite chewing gum along with the candy and colored eggs. Chewing gum is a wholesome treat that won't spoil the youngsters' appetites. Put a surprise present in Easter baskets also. Youngsters will appreciate receiving a basket more if a special gift such as a little game or book is added. Remember that thoughtfulness is more important than money spent, so get something suitable for each individual child.

Mark "lucky" on some of the eggs to be hidden. Reward the finders with a small prize.

Secrets Of Charm

by John Robert Powers

"Sittin' Pretty"

Skirts are at least one whole inch shorter than last year. A length of 16½ inches seems to be the favored one decreed by designers. However, this doesn't mean that every woman can wear her skirts at exactly this height from the floor. The shape of the legs and the figure must be taken into consideration.

What it does mean is that skirts generally will be higher and the woman who follows current style will shorten hers. And to collect all her charm credits, she must "sit pretty" in her new chemise.

The shorter the dress, the more difficult it is to have graceful control. Getting in and out of a chair will take a little more doing this spring with the new tapered silhouettes.

Bounce and flounce as you seat yourself and you're certain to focus attention on awkwardness. Not to mention the unbecoming line you'll give to your costume.

For the best results, practice grace in repose. Stand six paces in front of and slightly to the left of an ordinary chair as you're facing it. Starting out on the right foot, take six steps forward toward the chair. Gauge those steps so that, on arrival, the left leg touches the center front of the chair and your body is in near profile to it.

Now pause and be sure that your right foot is a pace ahead of the left, and that you center your weight on the balls of both feet. With super knee control, slowly lower your body—this will permit the thighs to perch diagonally across the seat. Slide your feet directly to the right, hooking the left toe around the right ankle. Then, square your shoulders and clasp your hands, palm up, in your lap. Now look at yourself, if a mirror is handy, and see if you are in perfect repose.

In 1947 she went to Liberia and taught there in the School of the Mission from 1949 until 1951. She spent much time studying the Loma language so she might teach without an interpreter. Easter Tips For Baskets, Decorations

Once again it is time for the hardworking, useful egg to come out of the kitchen and play its annual glamorous Easter role. This time, however, it is just the shell which is colored and decorated to make gay Easter bunnies that can be used as combination party favors and place cards.

Save a quantity of egg shells before Easter by blowing the contents out of the egg. Make a small hole in each end of a raw egg and blow hard through one end until the egg is entirely out of the shell.

Color the shells in the usual way, being sure to drain them well. Cut ears from pink crepe paper and fasten onto the eggs with cement or modeling glue. Attach large fancy sequins for eyes, nose and mouth. Cut narrow pointed crepe paper strips for whiskers and fasten in place.

For each bunny, cut two circles from approximately ¾" thick Styrofoam the size of a teacup, or use an empty No. 2 can to press out the pieces—one for a base and the other to use upright as a body. Assemble the egg head, body and base with a pipe cleaner; or the pieces may be glued together. Place a sprig of flowers or small plume in the hole on top of the egg; tie narrow ribbon around the neck; and glue a small ball of cotton on back of the bunny for a tail.

Add Easter grass around the base and push extra sprigs of artificial flowers or small carrots into the outer edge. Curl a piece of pipe cleaner around an ice pick or skewer and insert in the base to hold a name card.

Children love to receive Easter baskets. Simple planning can make this cherished tradition lots more fun without being expensive. Here are a few helpful suggestions. You can make a basket from any small cardboard box. Cover the outside with crepe paper ruffled at the top. The basket handle can be made with a strip of thin cardboard also covered with crepe paper. Let the children help you. The whole family can have fun together making baskets for the Easter Bunny to fill.

Later, when the baskets are being filled, remember to include a few packages of the child's favorite chewing gum along with the candy and colored eggs. Chewing gum is a wholesome treat that won't spoil the youngsters' appetites. Put a surprise present in Easter baskets also. Youngsters will appreciate receiving a basket more if a special gift such as a little game or book is added. Remember that thoughtfulness is more important than money spent, so get something suitable for each individual child.

Mark "lucky" on some of the eggs to be hidden. Reward the finders with a small prize.

Secrets Of Charm

by John Robert Powers

"Sittin' Pretty"

Skirts are at least one whole inch shorter than last year. A length of 16½ inches seems to be the favored one decreed by designers. However, this doesn't mean that every woman can wear her skirts at exactly this height from the floor. The shape of the legs and the figure must be taken into consideration.

What it does mean is that skirts generally will be higher and the woman who follows current style will shorten hers. And to collect all her charm credits, she must "sit pretty" in her new chemise.

The shorter the dress, the more difficult it is to have graceful control. Getting in and out of a chair will take a little more doing this spring with the new tapered silhouettes.

Bounce and flounce as you seat yourself and you're certain to focus attention on awkwardness. Not to mention the unbecoming line you'll give to your costume.

For the best results, practice grace in repose. Stand six paces in front of and slightly to the left of an ordinary chair as you're facing it. Starting out on the right foot, take six steps forward toward the chair. Gauge those steps so that, on arrival, the left leg touches the center front of the chair and your body is in near profile to it.

Now pause and be sure that your right foot is a pace ahead of the left, and that you center your weight on the balls of both feet. With super knee control, slowly lower your body—this will permit the thighs to perch diagonally across the seat. Slide your feet directly to the right, hooking the left toe around the right ankle. Then, square your shoulders and clasp your hands, palm up, in your lap. Now look at yourself, if a mirror is handy, and see if you are in perfect repose.

Free Movement For Europe's Workers

One of the most interesting aspects of the new European Common Market to Americans is the provision that increases the freedom of movement among workers in the countries that become members.

The European Economic Community (known as the "Common Market") is the system whereby six nations of Western Europe — France, Germany, Italy, Belgium, The Netherlands and Luxembourg—will pool their economic resources to a degree and eliminate barriers against trade over a 12-to-15 year period.

This promises changes for the European business community and in the economic well-being of residents of the countries involved. But it also provides something else that may seem strange to Americans.

It will eliminate restrictions on the "free movement of labor and capital." By the end of the transitional period all workers will have the right to accept job offers in any member country, regardless of national frontier.

This is very significant for Italy, which has an unemployment problem most of the time. But the significance is really great for individual Europeans—be they French, German, Italian or of some other nationality.

Americans, who are the most "mobile" people in the world, shift over the thousands of miles of their own country, crossing state boundaries with little or no restrictions. Now, for the first time, Europeans also will be allowed virtually to do the same in regard to the borders of France and Italy or France and Germany, etc.

This change may be one of the greatest long-range stimulants to European political unity. Surely it is a move in the direction of freedom.

What Of The Republicans?

Maine, Pennsylvania, Michigan, Connecticut, New York and many other states that historically have been regarded as Republican are now wholly or partially in the Democratic column. While New York has a Democratic Governor, its two United States Senators have been elected as Republicans, but the general trend indicates a disintegration of the Republican Party which is not sufficiently different in perspective than the Democratic Party to excite the voters.

In New Jersey, the Republican Party is in the midst of a very interesting primary fight. About a year ago it was all set for Bernard Shanley, a White House secretary, to be nominated by the Republican Party in that state for United States Senator. Shanley, in due course, resigned his White House job and canvassed the state and it was believed that he was sure in.

Then Robert Morris came along to conduct a campaign that nobody would have believed possible. Morris had been counsel to the Senate Internal Security Subcommittee from which he had resigned. Morris criticizes President Eisenhower, his policies, the White House cabal and in effect calls for a purification of the Republican Party. Whether Morris will be nominated or not, we shall know after Primary Day, but he has stirred up the party in New Jersey, has developed an unanticipated receptivity for his ideas and has put up an old-fashioned type of campaign which goes right down to the grass roots.

If Morris should win the New Jersey nomination, or if he should come off second in a three-cornered fight (the other candidate being Representative Robert W. Kean), he will have established a leadership for Right Wing Republicanism in New Jersey. This can have widespread repercussions everywhere because whereas most club-house or professional Republicans have been pro-Eisenhower in their expressions of adulation, they have been Taftists in their party outlook. Many of them are very weary of the so-called White House crowd; they fear that the current recession can be as destructive of their party as the 1929 one was.

For a while, it was assumed that Nelson Rockefeller would be the Republican candidate for Governor of New York. It is now being suggested that Nelson Rockefeller would prefer to run for United States Senator in place of Irving Ives, the present incumbent. As Rockefeller represents a "gravy train" for the professional politicians, his wishes will not be ignored, although I can encounter no pros who believe that he can, in 1958, be elected to either position. Should Mayor Robert Wagner of New York City run for Senator on the Democratic ticket, it is regarded as likely that he will be elected. Another possibility might be former Postmaster General Jim Farley who is one of the most beloved personalities in the state without regard to party affiliation. At any rate, if Nelson Rockefeller does run for the United States Senate, he will come up against tough opposition which will be aggravated by economic conditions if the recession continues.

Besides, to most Republicans, Nelson Rockefeller is a maverick. He has served in the Roosevelt and Truman Administrations in Washington as well as in the Eisenhower Administration. He has always been associated with Mrs. Anna Rosenberg who has never been regarded as a Republican and he is close to David Dubinsky, the boss of the Liberal Party. Whereas no one can say that these are not ultra-respectable associations, they are definitely not Republican associations. For a man who has been in public life about 20 years, very few Republicans have ever encountered Nelson Rockefeller and therefore there are few Republican attachments to him.

The Republican who in New York State has emerged to altogether unexpected heights of popularity is Louis Lefkowitz, the Attorney General. Lefkowitz has, for many years, been what may be called a club-house politician. He was the chairman of the Law Committee of the New York County Committee. He has, to the surprise of Democrat as well as Republican, made a competent, even brilliant, Attorney General. He displays balance and real capacity. Men are beginning to compare him to Thomas E. Dewey. He could be nominated for Governor without any difficulty.

The chances of the Republican Party in 1958 depend upon economic conditions, altogether discounting Eisenhower popularity. If the recession remains as it is or worsens, there is not a chance that these Eastern states will go Republican at all.

Ike Shows Courage By Refusing To Stampede

By David Lawrence

WASHINGTON—It takes courage for a President of the United States to resist the temptations of political expediency. Mr. Eisenhower could become a "hero" overnight to groups that want him to slash taxes, fix higher farm prices, or rush into the "summit" conference sought by the Soviet rulers.

But the President refuses to follow surface opinion. He prefers to take the sound course, which involves perhaps temporary political disadvantage but saves the country from financial or economic disaster later on when the full effect of short-range stimulants wears off.

The President has been urged by members of his own party—who come from districts where certain types of farm legislation are politically popular— to sign the bill that fixes dairy prices. But a veto is forthcoming, and it takes plenty of fortitude to withstand the pressure to sign the measure and help certain Republican Congressmen to get re-elected.

Mr. Eisenhower doesn't just "follow the crowd" with respect to tax legislation either. He told his press conference Wednesday that "there are many factors that would imply that the bottom (of the recession) is certainly close, or possibly even now reached" and that his own feeling is that "we are going through the worst of it right now." While giving assurance that "we are going to do those things we think should be done" on a tax cut, he emphasized that this "is not something to be done lightly." He added that "We are not going into a tax cut or any other—what we believe to be unwise program—that can hurt us badly in the future."

This is a piece of sound statesmanship which is all the more admirable because so many politicians have become panicky and have begun demanding all sorts of tax cuts irrespective of the effect on the Federal Treasury. The President made it clear that he isn't ruling out a tax cut of some kind if the situation really requires it, but he left no doubt that his decision is going to be made on the basis of the economic facts and not by succumbing to political temptation.

When will these facts become available? If, as the President says, right now is the period when the country is riding along the bottom of the slump, there should be some further indication of how much of a stabilized trend has been achieved after the statistics, ready in mid-April, show what actually happened during the month of March.

It is apparent that Mr. Eisenhower is somewhat concerned about the widespread talk of a repeal of the excise taxes. This is something which has been advocated as a means of boosting automobile sales, which have slowed down in recent weeks. But the President would not commit himself on this issue beyond saying that people should buy products on the basis of what they are worth and when they believe they are getting a bargain rather than worry about the possibility that later on the articles might be a little cheaper. Undoubtedly any reduction in auto prices would help sales somewhat, but it is questionable whether the relatively small amounts involved in the excise taxes alone would induce persons who feel they don't need or cannot afford a new automobile to buy one just because the price is a little lower.

What will stimulate automobile sales more than anything else is a feeling of confidence among people who really need and want to buy a new auto but who have become uncertain about the future of their jobs in a recession period. A wave of optimism concerning this outlook, based on the belief that steady work at the same or higher income is in prospect, will do more to sell new cars than a revision of excise taxes that is made without some manifestation of general improvement in the economy.

To legislate a cut in income taxes generally would mean a large loss in revenue to the Treasury, and this, on top of the expected deficit due to increased defense spending and other recovery measures, could scare the American people because of the fear that more inflation would bring a further depreciation in the purchasing power of the dollar.

President Eisenhower is fortunately not being stampeded by considerations of political expediency so as to win a Congressional election. He is giving an example of sensible leadership in a crisis. He is concerned with the maintenance of a sound economy and hopes there will be enough voters who will be able to differentiate between constructive measures and artificial stimulants that give temporary satisfaction but leave a hangover of ill effects.

Baering Down On The News

By Arthur "Bugs" Baer

Campanella's tough break sends the Bums off to a worse start than a sprint in a swamp.

Three seasons Campy was the League's most valuable stopper. The catcher runs his team on tracks.

He was a throwback to the days of Cochrane, Chief Meyers and Bill Dickey. Today most catchers' throwbacks are to center field.

I could statisticate older than that for I saw Johnny Kling, Bresnahan, and even Frank Chance when he caught for the Cubs in 1898.

Outside of Campy there isn't a string stopper whose hitting average can make an apothecary reach for another little brass weight.

And even at that Campy was slipping like a smooth tire. Camp had a stance like he was scratching a match on a no smoking sign.

That made him pull like a dentist on an impacted molar. Wise pitchers were pitching him tighter than jammed zippers.

But he had a pretty fair handle-hit average at that.

How Some People Can Fake Serious Illness

By Dr. Theodore R. Van Dellen

I'll never forget the 17 year old girl who threw the hospital into an uproar. Her appendix had been removed, and the day before she was to leave, her temperature jumped to 105 degrees F. She was returned to bed rest but a careful examination revealed no complications.

Fever varied from 101 to 106 degrees during the next 10 days. Sometimes it was high in the morning and low in the afternoon or vice versa. The pulse rate remained the same and she never felt overly warm or perspired profusely, though the thermometer said she was burning up.

We were suspicious and a nurse was instructed to stand at the bedside while the temperature was taken. Normal readings were obtained. This young lady was feigning illness and when confronted with the evidence, called her dad and asked to be taken home.

Pretending illness by fooling with the thermometer is easy to do. The nurse usually makes the rounds of the floor, placing the thermometer in the mouths of the patients as she goes from room to room. Then she returns over the same territory recording the temperatures on the charts.

While the nurse is out of the room the malingerer holds the thermometer next to a steam pipe, light bulb, flame, or hot water bag. We suspected our gal of creating friction at the end of the thermomete. by rubbing it briskly against the sheets; or she may have held it upside down to shake the mercury up instead of down. Other methods include taking the temperature after swallowing hot coffee, tea, or water, or manipulating the instrument against the teeth, gums, or rectal sphincter.

The clews that suggsest factitious fever appear within a few days. The individual otherwise is healthy; the pulse fails to quicken as the temperature goes up; the pattern of a bona fide fever is highest in the afternoon and lowest in the morning; and temperatures in excess of 106 degrees are rare.

The majority of these patients leave the hospital without giving the physician an opportunity to determine the cause of their malingering. Some go from hospital to hospital, pulling the stunt over and over again. These people need psychiatric care.

ANESTHESIA IN CHILDBIRTH

L. J. writes: What are the dangers of painless childbirth?

REPLY

None, so far as the mother is concerned, but when she is given an anesthetizing drug, the unborn baby is affected by it also. He may come into the world so groggy he does not breathe.

TB OF COLON

M. E. B. writes: What are the symptoms of intestinal tuberculosis?

REPLY

Diarrhea and colicky pain usually are present. Many victims also have the general symptoms of tuberculosis, including weight loss, indigestion, and anemia.

LOW RESIDUE FOODS

J. N. writes: Are there any constipating foods?

REPLY

No, as all foods stimulate intestinal activity. But some are digested more completely than others and those that leave the most residue have a greater stimulating effect on the wall of the intestine. Individual differences also occur. Send a stamped, self-addressed envelope for our leaflet on bland foods.

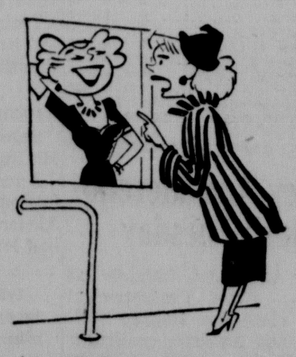
Try And Stop Me

By Bennett Cerf

Connie Simmons writes that she stood in line to see a Broadway movie for forty minutes, finally reached the box-office, and asked for two loge seats. "That'll be four-fifty," announced the bored lady in the booth. "You advertise 'popular prices,'" complained Miss Simmons. "You call $2.25 a popular price?" The ticket seller answered with a smile, "We like it."

Couple of sweet girl graduates were discussing their future careers. "It's me for the life of an airline hostess," caroled one. "That's the way to meet a well-heeled man-of-the-world." "There must be a less wearing way of meeting men," pondered the other. "Could be," said the first, "but you won't meet them strapped in!"



Away back in 1859 "A Manual of Politeness," dished out this fascinating bit of advice: "When dinner is announced, the host should rise, invite his guests to follow him to the dining room, and set the example by passing out first."

Meat Production Suffers Because Budget Allows Too Few Inspectors

By Drew Pearson

WASHINGTON — Housewives don't know it, but they are in for either faulty inspection of meat or a slowdown in meat production. This is because the Federal meat inspection service is short 412 meat inspectors and can't get the administration to ask for more money to hire them.

What's happened is that the population of the United States has grown by 3,000,000 a year, the cattle population of the United States is up to record levels, but the number of U. S. meat inspectors stationed in the slaughterhouses by the Department of Agriculture remains about the same.

The number of packing plants under inspection has risen by 55 per cent in the past 15 years, but in the same period of time the number of inspectors has been reduced by 6 per cent and the number of federal veterinarians by 23 per cent.

Last year Eisenhower asked Congress for additional funds to hire more meat inspectors, but didn't get them. This year he isn't even asking. This is because of the White House rule that all nondefense funds are being held back in favor of armament.

Results of the meat inspector shortage: curtailed income for farmers, higher prices for consumers, less profits for packers, and sometimes faulty inspection. Slowdowns in packing houses to give the inspector more time to inspect, sends up the price of meat. Production was curtailed 20 per cent in the Earl C. Gibbs plant in Cleveland this month.

Youthful Attorney General

Speaker Sam Rayburn never objects to a good story on himself. Here is one he tells himself.

"I was invited out to dinner the other night and found myself sitting alongside a handsome young man whose face looked familiar. I couldn't quite place him, so I asked him, 'Aren't you in the Justice Department?'

"'Yes', the young man told me, 'I'm the Attorney General'."

Note—Bill Rogers, the new Attorney General, is not new to Washington. He served as counsel for the old Truman Committee, also served for four years in the Justice Department as deputy to Herbert Brownell. However, he has so kept his youthful appearance that few people recognize him as a sedate member of the Cabinet.

Russia In Latin America

With Texas oilmen demanding new restrictions on oil imports from Latin America and Sen. Ralph Yarborough of Texas introducing legislatir to that end, Russia has been quietly opening new fields of trade among this country's good neighbors.

Here is the score of Soviet bloc penetration in Latin America recently.

Colombia—Talks are in progress between the USSR and the National Coffee Federation on an exchange of 50,000 tons of Clombian coffee for 50,000 tons of Syrian wheat.

Chile—Sale is being discussed of 500 tons of copper wire to Czechoslovakia and 350 tons to Red China. The wire would be within the 6-mm. limit allowed by the Battle Act.

Argentina—An Argentine mission has just returned from a tour of the Soviet bloc, which resulted in the purchase of $29,000 worth of Communist goods. Negotiations are continuing for additional purchases. The purchases are being financed with a $40 million credit left over from a trade agreement signed by Peron. Under it, Russia received Argentine goods but until now has been unable to supply anything in return that the Argentines wanted. Today, however, the Russians are going to supply equipment for the state-owned Rio Turbio coal mines.

Uruguay—A trade agreement was signed in 1956 but has not been ratified by the Uruguayan Congress. With Uruguay sore over the high U. S. tariff on wool tops, Russia is reported offering to send economic aid and technical assistance in exchange for wool.

Brazil—Moscow is reported offering $1 billion in economic aid in exchange for the restoration of diplomatic relations and legalization of the Communist Party. The Reds reportedly have offered to supply 5,000 Muskovitch cars, plus oil, equipment, and technicans for the Petrobras state oil company. The Russians would buy coffee, cocoa, cotton, sugar, hides, and minerals.

Bolivia—Moscow is reported offering to accpt Bolivian minerals in exchange for smelter facilities and oil-drilling equipment.

Note—Soviet progress in Latin America results from United States neglect, increased Russian prestige following the sputniks, the fall in raw-material prices, and the unwillingness of the Eisenhower administration to give economic aid or technical advice to state-owned enterprises in Latin America, especially the government oil monopolies of Brazil and Argentina.

Headlines And Footnotes

Despite public pronouncements to the contrary, the gas and oil Congressmen plan to bring up the natural gas bill before Congress adjourns. House Speaker Sam Rayburn hinted at this the other day in a private talk with Philadelphia's energetic Mayor Dick Dilworth. The gas bill would boost the companies' profits and the housewives' bills by millions . . . Dilworth heads a mayors' committee which is organizing a march of mayors upon Washington to oppose the bill. The mayors will sit in the House gallery, watch how their local Congressmen vote, and report back to the housewives.

Gift Wrapped

By Brother Barnabas

Of all the things we possess in this world more is given to us than we can ever hope to buy or pay for.

If one had a million dollars he could not compensate for parental love and care, for the endowment of health and a strong constitution. It is only when we lose these blessings, if we ever had them, that we realize their value.

Society is organized on an altruistic basis to help people in distress of any kind. So we have the Red Cross, the Blood Bank, the United Fund, various foundations for the prevention and cure of polio, cancer, tuberculosis, social diseases.

All this montage of helpfulness grows out of the spirit of human sympathy and brotherhood which springs from the heart of God.

A gift, whether to family, or friend, or community has its value enhanced if it is gift-wrapped, after the fashion of those beribboned, frilly packages that are so beautiful you think they must have been intended for somebody else around Christmas time.

Second Mile Giving

The spirit back of the giving is the thing that really counts. An inexpensive gift means more to both the receiver and the giver, if it is prompted by love, than if it is motivated by compulsion.

Wrapping de luxe is second mile giving; giving reluctantly is half-mile. "The gift without the giver is bare."

He gives only the worthless gold, who gives from a sense of duty. (Lowell).

With that interpretation, when the collector comes around and your wife turns over your second-best suit to the rummage sale, you don't storm the castle, but instead you call a summit conference and say to your wife, "It's all right, Dear, I never cared for that suit anyway."

And she replaces the loss with an Easter suit and matching coordinates and goes partying or joins the parade, singing, "It's So Nice to Have A Man Around the House."

Woman is God's best gift to the race of man, yet men have grown cagey these latter days, due to styles.

In the elder days of art any Beau Brummell would chase a woman uphill and down, not knowing whether it was her form, features or come-hither look that lured him on.

Modern Styles

Now the new chemise and trapeze mode has bewildered him to the point he doesn't see the woman underneath the wrappings, and he never finds out till after marriage, and it takes a long time for that.

Underneath the frills and furbelows time will disclose that he has married, forsooth, a careerist, a nurse, an Emily Post, a poet, an artist, or a cook.

If a careerist, he will be a hitching post from which she will circumnavigate the globe with all expenses paid, and he will be only Mrs. Partington's husband.

If she's a nurse, he'll have to take his medicine, bitter or sweet.

If she's a poet and you are a musician, she will write the poem and you will set the counterpoint to the tune of "Parachuting Nellie Home," or "After the Fall Is Over."

"Why did you tell the neighbors that you married me because I was such a good cook, when you knew I couldn't even boil a potato? asked a newlywed of her husband.

To this he answered, "I had to make some excuse, my dear."

In every category of human relations involving sex, both genders have their strength and weakness. A woman can lead her man to the gates of either Paradise or Purgatory.

Cupid's arsenal used to include a bow and arrow. Now it is guided missiles aimed at the heart of him for whom she sets her cap.

Man is the aggressor, but she is the back seat driver. He doesn't know where he is going, she does.

Early Disclosures

Her finess manifests itself in early life. A teacher asked a group of youngsters what they would do if a leopard should suddenly jump up before them.

"Think it over, now," said she, "and come back in five minutes with your answer."

Coming back, a little five-year-old girl said: "I would get the skin of a lady tiger, put it on and go out to meet him and I'd say 'Come on'!"

As we approach the Cross on Calvary our minds are occupied with thoughts of God's love and its expression.

Gift Wrapped

They found God's "unspeakable gift" wrapped in swaddling clothes lying in a manger—the Babe of Bethlehem, whose Incarnation and Teaching have done more for the welfare of humanity than Sputniks or Explorers can ever hope to do. (Read the story in Luke 2:1-14)

Quoting James 1:17: "Every good endowment and every perfect gift is from above, coming down from the Father of lights with whom there is no variation or shadow due to change," this writer subscribes himself,

Negotiations are continuing for additional purchases. The purchases are being financed with a $40 million credit left over from a trade agreement signed by Peron. Under it, Russia received Argentine goods but until now has been unable to supply anything in return that the Argentines wanted. Today, however, the Russians are going to supply equipment for the state-owned Rio Turbio coal mines.

Uruguay—A trade agreement was signed in 1956 but has not been ratified by the Uruguayan Congress. With Uruguay sore over the high U. S. tariff on wool tops, Russia is reported offering to send economic aid and technical assistance in exchange for wool.

Brazil—Moscow is reported offering $1 billion in economic aid in exchange for the restoration of diplomatic relations and legalization of the Communist Party. The Reds reportedly have offered to supply 5,000 Muskovitch cars, plus oil, equipment, and technicans for the Petrobras state oil company. The Russians would buy coffee, cocoa, cotton, sugar, hides, and minerals.

Bolivia—Moscow is reported offering to accpt Bolivian minerals in exchange for smelter facilities and oil-drilling equipment.

Note—Soviet progress in Latin America results from United States neglect, increased Russian prestige following the sputniks, the fall in raw-material prices, and the unwillingness of the Eisenhower administration to give economic aid or technical advice to state-owned enterprises in Latin America, especially the government oil monopolies of Brazil and Argentina.

Headlines And Footnotes

Despite public pronouncements to the contrary, the gas and oil Congressmen plan to bring up the natural gas bill before Congress adjourns. House Speaker Sam Rayburn hinted at this the other day in a private talk with Philadelphia's energetic Mayor Dick Dilworth. The gas bill would boost the companies' profits and the housewives' bills by millions . . . Dilworth heads a mayors' committee which is organizing a march of mayors upon Washington to oppose the bill. The mayors will sit in the House gallery, watch how their local Congressmen vote, and report back to the housewives.

Ike Shows Courage By Refusing To Stampede

By David Lawrence

WASHINGTON—It takes courage for a President of the United States to resist the temptations of political expediency. Mr. Eisenhower could become a "hero" overnight to groups that want him to slash taxes, fix higher farm prices, or rush into the "summit" conference sought by the Soviet rulers.

But the President refuses to follow surface opinion. He prefers to take the sound course, which involves perhaps temporary political disadvantage but saves the country from financial or economic disaster later on when the full effect of short-range stimulants wears off.

The President has been urged by members of his own party—who come from districts where certain types of farm legislation are politically popular— to sign the bill that fixes dairy prices. But a veto is forthcoming, and it takes plenty of fortitude to withstand the pressure to sign the measure and help certain Republican Congressmen to get re-elected.

Mr. Eisenhower doesn't just "follow the crowd" with respect to tax legislation either. He told his press conference Wednesday that "there are many factors that would imply that the bottom (of the recession) is certainly close, or possibly even now reached" and that his own feeling is that "we are going through the worst of it right now." While giving assurance that "we are going to do those things we think should be done" on a tax cut, he emphasized that this "is not something to be done lightly." He added that "We are not going into a tax cut or any other—what we believe to be unwise program—that can hurt us badly in the future."

This is a piece of sound statesmanship which is all the more admirable because so many politicians have become panicky and have begun demanding all sorts of tax cuts irrespective of the effect on the Federal Treasury. The President made it clear that he isn't ruling out a tax cut of some kind if the situation really requires it, but he left no doubt that his decision is going to be made on the basis of the economic facts and not by succumbing to political temptation.

When will these facts become available? If, as the President says, right now is the period when the country is riding along the bottom of the slump, there should be some further indication of how much of a stabilized trend has been achieved after the statistics, ready in mid-April, show what actually happened during the month of March.

It is apparent that Mr. Eisenhower is somewhat concerned about the widespread talk of a repeal of the excise taxes. This is something which has been advocated as a means of boosting automobile sales, which have slowed down in recent weeks. But the President would not commit himself on this issue beyond saying that people should buy products on the basis of what they are worth and when they believe they are getting a bargain rather than worry about the possibility that later on the articles might be a little cheaper. Undoubtedly any reduction in auto prices would help sales somewhat, but it is questionable whether the relatively small amounts involved in the excise taxes alone would induce persons who feel they don't need or cannot afford a new automobile to buy one just because the price is a little lower.

What will stimulate automobile sales more than anything else is a feeling of confidence among people who really need and want to buy a new auto but who have become uncertain about the future of their jobs in a recession period. A wave of optimism concerning this outlook, based on the belief that steady work at the same or higher income is in prospect, will do more to sell new cars than a revision of excise taxes that is made without some manifestation of general improvement in the economy.

To legislate a cut in income taxes generally would mean a large loss in revenue to the Treasury, and this, on top of the expected deficit due to increased defense spending and other recovery measures, could scare the American people because of the fear that more inflation would bring a further depreciation in the purchasing power of the dollar.

President Eisenhower is fortunately not being stampeded by considerations of political expediency so as to win a Congressional election. He is giving an example of sensible leadership in a crisis. He is concerned with the maintenance of a sound economy and hopes there will be enough voters who will be able to differentiate between constructive measures and artificial stimulants that give temporary satisfaction but leave a hangover of ill effects.

Baering Down On The News

By Arthur "Bugs" Baer

Campanella's tough break sends the Bums off to a worse start than a sprint in a swamp.

Three seasons Campy was the League's most valuable stopper. The catcher runs his team on tracks.

He was a throwback to the days of Cochrane, Chief Meyers and Bill Dickey. Today most catchers' throwbacks are to center field.

I could statisticate older than that for I saw Johnny Kling, Bresnahan, and even Frank Chance when he caught for the Cubs in 1898.

Outside of Campy there isn't a string stopper whose hitting average can make an apothecary reach for another little brass weight.

And even at that Campy was slipping like a smooth tire. Camp had a stance like he was scratching a match on a no smoking sign.

That made him pull like a dentist on an impacted molar. Wise pitchers were pitching him tighter than jammed zippers.

But he had a pretty fair handle-hit average at that.

By Dr. Theodore R. Van Dellen

I'll never forget the 17 year old girl who threw the hospital into an uproar. Her appendix had been removed, and the day before she was to leave, her temperature jumped to 105 degrees F. She was returned to bed rest but a careful examination revealed no complications.

Fever varied from 101 to 106 degrees during the next 10 days. Sometimes it was high in the morning and low in the afternoon or vice versa. The pulse rate remained the same and she never felt overly warm or perspired profusely, though the thermometer said she was burning up.

We were suspicious and a nurse was instructed to stand at the bedside while the temperature was taken. Normal readings were obtained. This young lady was feigning illness and when confronted with the evidence, called her dad and asked to be taken home.

Pretending illness by fooling with the thermometer is easy to do. The nurse usually makes the rounds of the floor, placing the thermometer in the mouths of the patients as she goes from room to room. Then she returns over the same territory recording the temperatures on the charts.

While the nurse is out of the room the malingerer holds the thermometer next to a steam pipe, light bulb, flame, or hot water bag. We suspected our gal of creating friction at the end of the thermomete. by rubbing it briskly against the sheets; or she may have held it upside down to shake the mercury up instead of down. Other methods include taking the temperature after swallowing hot coffee, tea, or water, or manipulating the instrument against the teeth, gums, or rectal sphincter.

The clews that suggsest factitious fever appear within a few days. The individual otherwise is healthy; the pulse fails to quicken as the temperature goes up; the pattern of a bona fide fever is highest in the afternoon and lowest in the morning; and temperatures in excess of 106 degrees are rare.

The majority of these patients leave the hospital without giving the physician an opportunity to determine the cause of their malingering. Some go from hospital to hospital, pulling the stunt over and over again. These people need psychiatric care.

ANESTHESIA IN CHILDBIRTH

L. J. writes: What are the dangers of painless childbirth?

REPLY

None, so far as the mother is concerned, but when she is given an anesthetizing drug, the unborn baby is affected by it also. He may come into the world so groggy he does not breathe.

TB OF COLON

M. E. B. writes: What are the symptoms of intestinal tuberculosis?

REPLY

Diarrhea and colicky pain usually are present. Many victims also have the general symptoms of tuberculosis, including weight loss, indigestion, and anemia.

LOW RESIDUE FOODS

J. N. writes: Are there any constipating foods?

REPLY

No, as all foods stimulate intestinal activity. But some are digested more completely than others and those that leave the most residue ave a greater stimulating effect on the wall of the intestine. Individual differences also occur. Send a stamped, self-addressed envelope for our leaflet on bland foods.

Try And Stop Me

By Bennett Cerf

Connie Simmons writes that she stood in line to see a Broadway movie for forty minutes, finally reached the box-office, and asked for two loge seats. "That'll be four-fifty," announced the bored lady in the booth. "You advertise 'popular prices,'" complained Miss Simmons. "You call $2.25 a popular price?" The ticket seller answered with a smile, "We like it."

Couple of sweet girl graduates were discussing their future careers. "It's me for the life of an airline hostess," caroled one. "That's the way to meet a well-heeled man-of-the-world." "There must be a less wearing way of meeting men," pondered the other. "Could be," said the first, "but you won't meet them strapped in!"

Away back in 1859 "A Manual of Politeness," dished out this fascinating bit of advice: "When dinner is announced, the host should rise, invite his guests to follow him to the dining room, and set the example by passing out first."

Gift Wrapped

By Brother Barnabas

Of all the things we possess in this world more is given to us than we can ever hope to buy or pay for.

If one had a million dollars he could not compensate for parental love and care, for the endowment of health and a strong constitution. It is only when we lose these blessings, if we ever had them, that we realize their value.

Society is organized on an altruistic basis to help people in distress of any kind. So we have the Red Cross, the Blood Bank, the United Fund, various foundations for the prevention and cure of polio, cancer, tuberculosis, social diseases.

All this montage of helpfulness grows out of the spirit of human sympathy and brotherhood which springs from the heart of God.

A gift, whether to family, or friend, or community has its value enhanced if it is gift-wrapped, after the fashion of those beribboned, frilly packages that are so beautiful you think they must have been intended for somebody else around Christmas time.

Second Mile Giving

The spirit back of the giving is the thing that really counts. An inexpensive gift means more to both the receiver and the giver, if it is prompted by love, than if it is motivated by compulsion.

Wrapping de luxe is second mile giving; giving reluctantly is half-mile. "The gift without the giver is bare."

He gives only the worthless gold, who gives from a sense of duty. (Lowell).

With that interpretation, when the collector comes around and your wife turns over your second-best suit to the rummage sale, you don't storm the castle, but instead you call a summit conference and say to your wife, "It's all right, Dear, I never cared for that suit anyway."

And she replaces the loss with an Easter suit and matching coordinates and goes partying or joins the parade, singing, "It's So Nice to Have A Man Around the House."

Woman is God's best gift to the race of man, yet men have grown cagey these latter days, due to styles.

In the elder days of art any Beau Brummell would chase a woman uphill and down, not knowing whether it was her form, features or come-hither look that lured him on.

Modern Styles

Now the new chemise and trapeze mode has bewildered him to the point he doesn't see the woman underneath the wrappings, and he never finds out till after marriage, and it takes a long time for that.

Underneath the frills and furbelows time will disclose that he has married, forsooth, a careerist, a nurse, an Emily Post, a poet, an artist, or a cook.

If a careerist, he will be a hitching post from which she will circumnavigate the globe with all expenses paid, and he will be only Mrs. Partington's husband.

If she's a nurse, he'll have to take his medicine, bitter or sweet.

If she's a poet and you are a musician, she will write the poem and you will set the counterpoint to the tune of "Parachuting Nellie Home," or "After the Fall Is Over."

"Why did you tell the neighbors that you married me because I was such a good cook, when you knew I couldn't even boil a potato? asked a newlywed of her husband.

To this he answered, "I had to make some excuse, my dear."

In every category of human relations involving sex, both genders have their strength and weakness. A woman can lead her man to the gates of either Paradise or Purgatory.

Cupid's arsenal used to include a bow and arrow. Now it is guided missiles aimed at the heart of him for whom she sets her cap.

Man is the aggressor, but she is the back seat driver. He doesn't know where he is going, she does.

Early Disclosures

Her finess manifests itself in early life. A teacher asked a group of youngsters what they would do if a leopard should suddenly jump up before them.

"Think it over, now," said she, "and come back in five minutes with your answer."

Coming back, a little five-year-old girl said: "I would get the skin of a lady tiger, put it on and go out to meet him and I'd say 'Come on'!"

As we approach the Cross on Calvary our minds are occupied with thoughts of God's love and its expression.

Gift Wrapped

They found God's "unspeakable gift" wrapped in swaddling clothes lying in a manger—the Babe of Bethlehem, whose Incarnation and Teaching have done more for the welfare of humanity than Sputniks or Explorers can ever hope to do. (Read the story in Luke 2:1-14)

Quoting James 1:17: "Every good endowment and every perfect gift is from above, coming down from the Father of lights with whom there is no variation or shadow due to change," this writer subscribes himself,

St. Aloysius Eliminates LaSalle From Tourney, 63-50

Late Rally Wins Game At Newport

Jersey City Team Goes To Consolation Final Game Today

(Special To The News)

NEWPORT, R. I., March 28—Breaking the game wide open with a 10-point scoring spree that increased their lead from five to 15 points in the last five minutes of play, St. Aloysius High School of Jersey City, N. J., knocked LaSalle High School's Explorers of Cumberland, Md., out of the Eastern States Catholic Invitation Basketball Tournament by winning the consolation round semi-final at John Rogers High School gym before approximately 300 spectators this afternoon by the score of 63-50.

The New Jerseyites held a 54-48 advantage with approximately five minutes remaining in the game when lightning struck the Marylanders. Two field goals and a like number of foul goals by Vince Ernst, a 5-foot-8 blonde bomber, who was a thorn in the side of the Explorers throughout the game, a fielder by Tom Nyire and two points at the foul line by Bob Sponza featured the 10-point rally that sent the Cumberland team down for the count. This rally widened the lead to 15 points before Rick Winfield dumped in the final goal of the game for the losers.

LaSalle Leads At Half

This was a game in which the score was knoted six times and the lead changed hands seven times in the first half and as the teams trotted off the court at intermission LaSalle held a single point edge at 27-26.

St. Aloysius led by 7 points at 34-27 in the third period but that melted in a hurry when a hook shot by Winfield and a layup by Rich Garlitz turned the tide in LaSalle's favor at 37-36. That was the last time the Explorers were out in front in the game. Goals by Sponza and Ernst sent the Jersey team ahead at 40-37 and they never relinquished the lead thereafter.

The Jersey City quint built up an 8-point lead at 53-45 early in the final stanza but "Chazz" Imes' field goal and a one-pointer by Winfield cut the opposition's advantage to five points. Then St. Aloysius slammed in ten points in succession to put the game on ice.

Sponza's foul goal opened the scoring in the first period and a fielder by Nyire made it 3-0. LaSalle tied it at 3-all, moved out in front and was leading by five points at 10-5 when St. Aloysius got back in the game and tied it up at 12-12 on Ernst's drive-in shot as the period ended.

Scored Tied Four Times

In the second period the score was deadlocked at 14, 16, 21 and 23. Garlitz scored on a jump shot as LaSalle forged ahead at 25-23. St Aloysius, however, regained the lead on Sponza's foul and a field goal by Ernst. With 15 seconds remaining, Charley Howell sank a field goal to give the Explorers a 27-26 edge at the halfway mark.

Ernst sparked St. Aloysius in scoring with 23 points on nine field goals a 5-6 at the foul line. Sponza was right behind with 19 tallies and Nyire collected 16. This trio accounted for all five of the winning team's 63 points.

Coach Robert O'Connor's Jersey City outfit connected for 23 field goals in 60 attempts for a .383 average while LaSalle took 75 shots and made good 22 for .293. St. Aloysius meshed 17 of 24 free throws for .709 while the Cumberlanders converted 6 of 12 attempts for an even .500. Jack Bahen of LaSalle was the only player to exit on fouls.

Garlitz showed his best form of the tournament by leading the LaSalle attack with 10 goals and 23 points. Ernst, St. Aloysius ace, tallied five points in the first half but caught fire in the second half and racked up seven goals and 4-5 at the foul line. Twelve of Sponza's 19 markers were registered in the first half, including 8-for-9 at the charity stripe.

LaSalle closed out its season with a 23-5 record while St. Aloysius moved on to the consolation finals with an 18-4 mark.

Play St. Joe's Today

The New Jersey quint will play St. Joseph's of Huntington, W. Va., for consolation honors on Saturday at 3:15 p. m. The West Virginians advanced today by beating DeLaSalle Academy of Newport by the score of 67-56.

SCOTTSDALE, Ariz. (AP) — The Baltimore Orioles broke out of their slump Friday, whipping the Chicago Cubs 14-7 with a 17 hit attack that included nine extra base blows.

Jack Harshman, the starting and winning pitcher, knocked a single and the game's only homer, a three-run blast in the fourth.

Second baseman Jerry Kindall got two singles, the only Cub to hit safely more than once. Chicago picked on Harshman for three runs in the fourth, capitalizing on the left hander's wildness. Three walks, a sacrifice fly and Frank Ernaga's pinch hit double accounted for the runs.

Nancy Belt Gets 30 As 1957 Champions Bow In Title Game

Greene Street Esso, a team composed of Fort Hill High School's unbeaten varsity sextet, ran roughshod over the VFW, defending champions, to win the championship of the sixth annual Women's Basketball Tournament, sponsored by the Cumberland Recreation Department, last night at Carver School gymnasium. The score was 69-21.

The winners rang up 29 field goals while limiting the opposition to nine baskets and led at the quarters by scores of 20-5, 39-6 and 61-16.

Take 12-0 Lead

Greene Street jumped off to 12-point lead before Kathy Mullaney sank the first goal for the VFW. In the first half Nancy Belt collected 20 of Greene Street's 39 points. Despite sharp passing by the VFW forwards all three were off on their shooting and sank only two field goals in the second quarter.

The second half was much the same story. Even though they shifted their players around the Vets couldn't find a clicking combination and Greene Street continued to pile up the points from the field with the three forwards driving in for their layups.

Nancy Belt Gets 30

Nancy Belt dumped in 15 field goals and 30 points to pace the winners while Barbara Joyce contributed 19 tallies and Wilma Redinger garnered 15. Mae Smith led the losers with 10 points to her credit.

Edgar "Ike" Cessna is coach of the championship team whose members are Wilma Redinger, Donna Harris, Linda Fuller, Barbara Joyce, Eleanor Leatherman, Nancy Belt, Joyce White, Lucille Aaron, Betty Angellatta and Jeannette Hicks.

Judy McKenty Honored

Judy McKenty, of Ursuline Academy, was voted the winner of the Sportsmanship Trophy. Members of the all-tournament team selected by a committee are: Nancy Belt and Barbara Joyce, Greene Street, and Kathy Mullaney, VFW, forwards; Eleanor Leatherman, Greene Street; Cindy Parsons, Ursuline, and Catherine Madden, Sports Shoppe, guards.

Thirty-three trophies for teams and individuals had not arrived in time and will be presented at a later date, according to Gene Mason, director of the City Recreation Department.

Trophies will go to the winning team and runner-up sextet, the 12 members of the same teams, the six players who made the all-tournament team and the winner of the Sportsmanship Award.

GENE STAIR, who managed the pennant-winning Hyndman Merchants in the Pen-Mar Baseball League last year, has decided to return to minor league baseball after an absence of two seasons.

Gene is scheduled to leave Monday by plane for the Pittsburgh Pirates' minor league training camp at Jacksonville Beach, Fla. He is under contract to the Lincoln (Neb.) Chiefs of the Class A Western League, an affiliate of the National League club.

An employe of the B.&O. Bolt and Forge plant, Stair was furloughed recently and he decided to take up in baseball where he left off at the close of the 1955 season.

In 1956 Stair was assigned to Waco, Texas, of the Big State League, but he turned down the contract because he felt he was entitled to play in a league of higher classification and at a higher salary after having finished up in "A" ball in 1955 at Lincoln.

Three years ago Stair was a ball of fire as an outfielder with Phoenix of the Class C Arizona-Mexico League where he belted the ball at a .376 clip in 85 games and hit safely in 25 consecutive contests. He collected 35 extra base hits, pilfered 24 bases and batted in 104 runs. He was promoted to the Class A Lincoln club late in the season but didn't appear in many games and hit .259.

Passing up the minors in 1956, Stair played for Hyndman in the Pen-Mar and banged the ball for a nice .340. Last season as player-manager at Hyndman, Gene smacked the pill for .448, finishing second to Junie Perry, of Grantsville, who set the pace at .460.

Stair started in the minors as a shortstop but was an outfielder at Phoenix and Lincoln. He throws right-handed and is a left-handed hitter.

In 1950 Stair hit .310 in 77 games with Salisbury in the North Carolina State League. He was inactive in 1951, saw military service in 1952 and 1953 and played 101 games with St. Jean of the Provincial League in 1954 and batted .273.

OFFICIALS for the Cumberland National Championship Sports Car Races have begun a systematic check of all hotels and motels within a radius of 30 miles of the city to find non-reserved housing space for the week of May 17-18.

The housing check is being conducted in an effort to place competition sports car drivers and technical personnel which will accompany them to the local classic.

Close to 150 drivers are expected to pilot speedy foreign and domestic pieces of machinery on the card of eight races at the airport.

ALTOONA, located 68 miles from Cumberland, is all enthused over its basketball team which will be playing for the Pennsylvania Class A championship tonight.

The Altoona High School quint will meet Haverford High School in the "big game" at the University of Pennsylvania Palestra.

The Blair countians advanced to the state finals for the first time since 1938 by whipping Erie Strong Vincent at Pittsburgh Wednesday by the score of 58-53. They have won 22 out of 26 games this season.

Haverford won eastern regional honors Wednesday by cracking York's 23-game winning streak at Philadelphia, 71-54. The Fords have qualified for the state finals for the first time.

Tonight's game at Philadelphia will be Pennsylvania's 39th state championship affair.

PEOPLE are funny.

Take the case of Coach Jim McCafferty of Xavier University.

A month and a half ago he was burned in effigy by disgruntled Xavier fans because his team had lost six games in a row.

When Xavier's team returned from New York the other day after beating Dayton 78-74 in the NIT final in Madison Square Garden Coach McCafferty and his boys were given the biggest welcome for an athletic team in Cincinnati since the Redlegs won the pennant in 1940.

There were 10,000 fans at the airport to cheer the champions.

Death Takes Chuck Klein, Won Two MVP Awards

Belted 300 Home Runs, Hit Four In Ten Inning Game

INDIANAPOLIS (AP) — Chuck Klein, former major league base ball star who won the National League's most valuable player award twice, died of a heart attack at his home here Friday.

Klein, 54, was found dead in his bathroom a short time after he finished working in his yard.

One of the National League's all-time great outfielders and hitters, he spent most of his career with the Philadelphia Phillies but also played with the Chicago Cubs and Pittsburgh Pirates.

Klein got a total of 2,076 hits in his major league career. He broke in with the Phillies in 1928 and played until the 1944 season. He was with the Cubs in 1934, 1935 and part of the 1936 season before returning to Philadelphia. He spent part of the 1939 season with Pittsburgh.

Klein had an even 300 major league home runs and hit four in one 10-inning game July 10, 1936. His major league lifetime batting average was .320.

A native of Indianapolis, he entered organized baseball at Evansville, Ind., in 1927 and played with Fort Wayne, Ind., the next season before going up to the Phillies.

Turner Loses To Crawford

Gil Outpointed In Garden Bout

By MURRAY ROSE

NEW YORK (AP)—Young Mickey Crawford of Saginaw, Mich., boosted his chances for a welterweight ranking tonight by outpointing Gil Turner, fourth-ranking contender from Philadelphia, in a television 10-rounder at Madison Square Garden. Crawford weighed 149, Turner 154½.

Although he has been fighting pro only 2¼ years and is unranked, the 24-year old Crawford was made a closing 2-1 favorite over the 27-year old veteran.

Turner's low blows, which cost him a round, helped make it a unanimous decision for Crawford. Judge Sam Iron had it 6-4, Referee Al Berl made it 5-4-1, and Judge Artie Aidala scored it even in rounds but Crawford in front on points, 6-5. THE AP card had Crawford ahead 6-4.

Turner who used his 5½ pound advantage to bull his taller rival around, was warned for low blows in the first two rounds. When he struck below the belt again in the third round, Berl took the round away from him.

Always driving forward, the more experienced Turner dominated the first half of the fight over his sharper-hitting rival. Gil continually pressed Crawford to the ropes and flailed away with both hands. Many of his punches just landed on Mickey's arms, but a good number got through to the body.

Fast-hitting Mickey took command finally in the seventh round when he started to move around more and lashed at his incoming rival with fast combinations of two, three and four punches. Gil kept charging ahead, but he ran into sharp counter-punches.

Rush Goes Route, Braves Win, 11-2

TAMPA, Fa. (AP)—Bob Rush, the Chicago Cubs' gift to the Milwaukee Braves, today became the first pitcher this spring to go the route for the world champions, scattering five hits in an 11-2 triumph over the Chicago White Sox.

Rush advanced a strong claim for a starting job as he fanned 4, yielded 4 walks and finished impressively by retiring the last 10 White Sox to face him.

The tall, bespectacled right-hander, a 10-year veteran with the Cubs until his surprise trade to Milwaukee last December, has been solved for only four runs—all by the White Sox—in 19 innings of grapefruit league pitching thus far.

NBA Blocks Attempt To Buy Royals

Move To Rochester Opposed By Board

CINCINNATI, O., March 28 — (INS) — The National Basketball Association today blocked a second attempt to purchase the Cincinnati Royals.

Attorney Robert Siegel said Royals owners Les and Jack Harrison were willing to accept $150,000 now and $50,000 more next season but the NBA would not approve.

Siegel said he would seek to join forces with a group of Cincinnati business and professional men now raising funds to purchase the Royals to keep the team from moving.

Sale of the Royals for $200,000 to Rochester, N. Y., concession operator Norman Shapiro ran into trouble when the NBA board of directors turned thumbs down on the transaction.

The NBA said earlier they preferred to keep the ownership in Cincinnati.

The other Cincinnati group, headed by Attorney Frank Wood Jr., planned to start negotiations immediately with the Harrisons in expectation that sufficient capital would be raised in the next few days.

St. Aloysius Eliminates LaSalle From Tourney, 63-50

Late Rally Wins Game At Newport

Jersey City Team Goes To Consolation Final Game Today

(Special To The News)

NEWPORT, R. I., March 28—Breaking the game wide open with a 10-point scoring spree that increased their lead from five to 15 points in the last five minutes of play, St. Aloysius High School of Jersey City, N. J., knocked LaSalle High School's Explorers of Cumberland, Md., out of the Eastern States Catholic Invitation Basketball Tournament by winning the consolation round semi-final at John Rogers High School gym before approximately 300 spectators this afternoon by the score of 63-50.

The New Jerseyites held a 54-48 advantage with approximately five minutes remaining in the game when lightning struck the Marylanders. Two field goals and a like number of foul goals by Vince Ernst, a 5-foot-8 blonde bomber, who was a thorn in the side of the Explorers throughout the game, a fielder by Tom Nyire and two points at the foul line by Bob Sponza featured the 10-point rally that sent the Cumberland team down for the count. This rally widened the lead to 15 points before Rick Winfield dumped in the final goal of the game for the losers.

LaSalle Leads At Half

This was a game in which the score was knoted six times and the lead changed hands seven times in the first half and as the teams trotted off the court at intermission LaSalle held a single point edge at 27-26.

St. Aloysius led by 7 points at 34-27 in the third period but that melted in a hurry when a hook shot by Winfield and a layup by Rich Garlitz turned the tide in LaSalle's favor at 37-36. That was the last time the Explorers were out in front in the game. Goals by Sponza and Ernst sent the Jersey team ahead at 40-37 and they never relinquished the lead thereafter.

The Jersey City quint built up an 8-point lead at 53-45 early in the final stanza but "Chazz" Imes' field goal and a one-pointer by Winfield cut the opposition's advantage to five points. Then St. Aloysius slammed in ten points in succession to put the game on ice.

Sponza's foul goal opened the scoring in the first period and a fielder by Nyire made it 3-0. LaSalle tied it at 3-all, moved out in front and was leading by five points at 10-5 when St. Aloysius got back in the game and tied it up at 12-12 on Ernst's drive-in shot as the period ended.

Scored Tied Four Times

In the second period the score was deadlocked at 14, 16, 21 and 23. Garlitz scored on a jump shot as LaSalle forged ahead at 25-23. St Aloysius, however, regained the lead on Sponza's foul and a field goal by Ernst. With 15 seconds remaining, Charley Howell sank a field goal to give the Explorers a 27-26 edge at the halfway mark.

Ernst sparked St. Aloysius in scoring with 23 points on nine field goals a 5-6 at the foul line. Sponza was right behind with 19 tallies and Nyire collected 16. This trio accounted for all five of the winning team's 63 points.

Coach Robert O'Connor's Jersey City outfit connected for 23 field goals in 60 attempts for a .383 average while LaSalle took 75 shots and made good 22 for .293. St. Aloysius meshed 17 of 24 free throws for .709 while the Cumberlanders converted 6 of 12 attempts for an even .500. Jack Bahen of LaSalle was the only player to exit on fouls.

Garlitz showed his best form of the tournament by leading the LaSalle attack with 10 goals and 23 points. Ernst, St. Aloysius ace, tallied five points in the first half but caught fire in the second half and racked up seven goals and 4-5 at the foul line. Twelve of Sponza's 19 markers were registered in the first half, including 8-for-9 at the charity stripe.

LaSalle closed out its season with a 23-5 record while St. Aloysius moved on to the consolation finals with an 18-4 mark.

Play St. Joe's Today

The New Jersey quint will play St. Joseph's of Huntington, W. Va., for consolation honors on Saturday at 3:15 p. m. The West Virginians advanced today by beating DeLaSalle Academy of Newport by the score of 67-56.

Nancy Belt Gets 30 As 1957 Champions Bow In Title Game

Greene Street Esso, a team composed of Fort Hill High School's unbeaten varsity sextet, ran roughshod over the VFW, defending champions, to win the championship of the sixth annual Women's Basketball Tournament, sponsored by the Cumberland Recreation Department, last night at Carver School gymnasium. The score was 69-21.

The winners rang up 29 field goals while limiting the opposition to nine baskets and led at the quarters by scores of 20-5, 39-6 and 61-16.

Take 12-0 Lead

Greene Street jumped off to 12-point lead before Kathy Mullaney sank the first goal for the VFW. In the first half Nancy Belt collected 20 of Greene Street's 39 points. Despite sharp passing by the VFW forwards all three were off on their shooting and sank only two field goals in the second quarter.

The second half was much the same story. Even though they shifted their players around the Vets couldn't find a clicking combination and Greene Street continued to pile up the points from the field with the three forwards driving in for their layups.

Nancy Belt Gets 30

Nancy Belt dumped in 15 field goals and 30 points to pace the winners while Barbara Joyce contributed 19 tallies and Wilma Redinger garnered 15. Mae Smith led the losers with 10 points to her credit.

Edgar "Ike" Cessna is coach of the championship team whose members are Wilma Redinger, Donna Harris, Linda Fuller, Barbara Joyce, Eleanor Leatherman, Nancy Belt, Joyce White, Lucille Aaron, Betty Angellatta and Jeannette Hicks.

Members of the all-tournament team selected by a committee are: Nancy Belt and Barbara Joyce, Greene Street, and Kathy Mullaney, VFW, forwards; Eleanor Leatherman, Greene Street; Cindy Parsons, Ursuline, and Catherine Madden, Sports Shoppe, guards.

Thirty-three trophies for teams and individuals had not arrived in time and will be presented at a later date, according to Gene Mason, director of the City Recreation Department.

Trophies will go to the winning team and runner-up sextet, the 12 members of the same teams, the six players who made the all-tournament team and the winner of the Sportsmanship Award.

Klein, 54, was found dead in his bathroom a short time after he finished working in his yard.

One of the National League's all-time great outfielders and hitters, he spent most of his career with the Philadelphia Phillies but also played with the Chicago Cubs and Pittsburgh Pirates.

Klein got a total of 2,076 hits in his major league career. He broke in with the Phillies in 1928 and played until the 1944 season. He was with the Cubs in 1934, 1935 and part of the 1936 season before returning to Philadelphia. He spent part of the 1939 season with Pittsburgh.

Klein had an even 300 major league home runs and hit four in one 10-inning game July 10, 1936. His major league lifetime batting average was .320.

A native of Indianapolis, he entered organized baseball at Evansville, Ind., in 1927 and played with Fort Wayne, Ind., the next season before going up to the Phillies.

Turner Loses To Crawford

Gil Outpointed In Garden Bout

By MURRAY ROSE

NEW YORK (AP)—Young Mickey Crawford of Saginaw, Mich., boosted his chances for a welterweight ranking tonight by outpointing Gil Turner, fourth-ranking contender from Philadelphia, in a television 10-rounder at Madison Square Garden. Crawford weighed 149, Turner 154½.

Although he has been fighting pro only 2¼ years and is unranked, the 24-year old Crawford was made a closing 2-1 favorite over the 27-year old veteran.

Turner's low blows, which cost him a round, helped make it a unanimous decision for Crawford. Judge Sam Iron had it 6-4, Referee Al Berl made it 5-4-1, and Judge Artie Aidala scored it even in rounds but Crawford in front on points, 6-5. THE AP card had Crawford ahead 6-4.

Turner who used his 5½ pound advantage to bull his taller rival around, was warned for low blows in the first two rounds. When he struck below the belt again in the third round, Berl took the round away from him.

Always driving forward, the more experienced Turner dominated the first half of the fight over his sharper-hitting rival. Gil continually pressed Crawford to the ropes and flailed away with both hands. Many of his punches just landed on Mickey's arms, but a good number got through to the body.

Fast-hitting Mickey took command finally in the seventh round when he started to move around more and lashed at his incoming rival with fast combinations of two, three and four punches. Gil kept charging ahead, but he ran into sharp counter-punches.

Rush Goes Route, Braves Win, 11-2

TAMPA, Fa. (AP)—Bob Rush, the Chicago Cubs' gift to the Milwaukee Braves, today became the first pitcher this spring to go the route for the world champions, scattering five hits in an 11-2 triumph over the Chicago White Sox.

Rush advanced a strong claim for a starting job as he fanned 4, yielded 4 walks and finished impressively by retiring the last 10 White Sox to face him.

The tall, bespectacled right-hander, a 10-year veteran with the Cubs until his surprise trade to Milwaukee last December, has been solved for only four runs—all by the White Sox—in 19 innings of grapefruit league pitching thus far.

NBA Blocks Attempt To Buy Royals

Move To Rochester Opposed By Board

CINCINNATI, O., March 28 — (INS) — The National Basketball Association today blocked a second attempt to purchase the Cincinnati Royals.

Attorney Robert Siegel said Royals owners Les and Jack Harrison were willing to accept $150,000 now and $50,000 more next season but the NBA would not approve.

Siegel said he would seek to join forces with a group of Cincinnati business and professional men now raising funds to purchase the Royals to keep the team from moving.

Sale of the Royals for $200,000 to Rochester, N. Y., concession operator Norman Shapiro ran into trouble when the NBA board of directors turned thumbs down on the transaction.

The NBA said earlier they preferred to keep the ownership in Cincinnati.

The other Cincinnati group, headed by Attorney Frank Wood Jr., planned to start negotiations immediately with the Harrisons in expectation that sufficient capital would be raised in the next few days.

Fort Hill, LaSalle Roll For Bowling Loop Title Sunday

Bowling teams of Fort Hill High School and LaSalle High School will clash Sunday in a six-game rolloff for the championship of the Bi-State Interscholastic League.

The first three games will get under way on the Savoy alleys at 1 p. m., while the second half of the match will follow on the Diamond lanes. The title will be determined on highest total pins in six games.

LaSalle won the first half championship race this year and tied with Fort Hill at 17-10 in the second half. Fort Hill bagged the rolloff match to grab second half honors and forced a rolloff also for the season championship. LaSalle captured the title last year.

Hagerstown Plays First Contest Of Year Here May 25

The eighth annual invitation golf tournament of the Women's Golf Association of the Cumberland Country Club will be held Thursday and Friday, June 26 and 27, it was announced yesterday by Carroll Boggs, manager of the local club.

Dates for nine matches for the men's golf team of the local club also have been confirmed. The CCC linksmen will open the season with the Fountain Head Country Club of Hagerstown over the local course Sunday, May 25, and will also meet Maplehurst of Frostburg, North Fork of Johnstown, Pa., Preston Country Club of Kingwood, W. The CCC men's team turned in an 8-1 record last year, suffering its only defeat at the hands of North Fork at Johnstown by the margin of a single point.

Boggs stated that one or two more matches with out-of-town clubs may be added to the men's schedule.

Mrs. Glick 1957 Winner

Mrs. Maurice Glick, of Woodholme Country Club, Baltimore, is the defending champion in the women's invitation tourney in June. The Monumental City star posted a 156 for 36 holes last year to win a leg on the second Old Export Bowl donated by the Cumberland Brewing Company. Eighty players of 20 different clubs participated in the 1957 event.

Mary Ann Downey, Baltimore, retired the first Old Export Bowl by winning tournaments in 1953, 1954 and 1955. Mrs. John McCuskey, Clarksburg, W. Va., won the first tourney in 1951 and Mrs. Nancy Bycott, Wheeling, W. Va., was the victor in 1952. Capt. Lucille Busch, of San Diego, Calif., gained the first leg on the new bowl in 1956 and Mrs. Glick romped off with the honors last year.

Perini Predicts National League Club For Gotham

JACKSONVILLE, Fla. (AP) —Lou Perini, head of the Milwaukee Braves Baseball Club, believes New York will have a National League team again in the near future.

And he feels that the National League club and the American League's New York Yankees will both play in one modern park with ample parking facilities.

The Braves head man expressed the opinions Thursday night in an interview while here to attend a scholarship dinner for Brandeis University.

Boston Red Sox Win 6th In Row

SARASOTA, Fla. (AP) — Cincinnati's Frank Robinson slammed the first home run of the season out of Payne Park, his fourth of the spring, but the Boston Red Sox continued their hot streak—now six in a row—in defeating the Reds 8-5 Friday.

Boston took an early lead against Hal Jeffcoat, then sewed up the game against Hersh Freeman with three runs in the fifth, with Pete Runnels' triple the big blow. Sammy White's double drove home two earned runs in the seventh.

Peeping Tom Beats 14 In Bowie Sprint

Joe Culmone Posts 27th Of Meeting

BOWIE, Md., March 28 (AP) — Ella K. Bryson's Peeping Tom left the maiden ranks in a big way in the $7,500-added Bowie Breeders' Stakes here today when he won from 14 rivals.

After the first 100 yards, Peeping Tom showed in front and opened up a substantial lead to win by five lengths from Charles T. Coburn's Another Wish, who was a half length in front of Allen Hummer's Kiperic, the 9-to-5 favorite.

Peeping Tom had failed to win in three previous outings, but showed much improvement in running the four-and-a-half furlongs of the Breeders Stakes in .54 4/5.

Joe Culmone, leading rider of the meeting who seems certain to hold that honor through tomorrow's closing program, handled Peeping Tom with a brisk handride and gained his 27th victory at this session.

The Bowie management announced this to be the last running of the stakes for 2-year-olds. Next season, the Bowie Breeders will be for locally-bred 3-year-olds.

Pirates Belt Robin Roberts

Klu Wallops 2 Of 5 Homers In 8-7 Tilt

CLEARWATER, Fla. (AP)—Robin Roberts gave up five home runs—four in one inning—today as the Pittsburgh Pirates took an 8-7 exhibition baseball game from the Philadelphia Phillies.

Roberts worked five innings, giving up all Pirate runs on 11 hits.

Catcher Danny Kravitz started the nightmare for Roberts in the third when he led off with a homer over the right field wall. Rookie pitcher Benny Daniels did likewise. Bill Virdon flied out, Dick Groat singled, Frank Thomas fouled out and then Ted Kluszewski belted a long home run. Johnny Powers also got one before the inning ended.

Pinch Hitters Win For Cleveland, 9-8

TUCSON, Ariz. (AP) — Cleveland Manager Bobby Bragan put on a pinch-hitter parade in the eighth and ninth innings Friday which gave the Indians a wild 9-8 exhibition victory over the San Francisco Giants.

Bragan used six sub batters in the two frames and four of them came through with hits for one run in the eighth and two in the ninth.

The winning run scored on Mickey Vernon's single which brought Fred Hatfield in from second. Both were pinch-hitters.

Cleveland collected 15 hits and the Giants 16 as each used four pitchers.

Calumet Silks To Appear For First Time At Bowie

Iron Liege Favored In John B. Campbell $115,850 Memorial

By GEORGE BOWEN

Bowie, Md. (AP) — Calumet Farm's famed devil red racing silks appear for the first time Saturday at 44-year-old Bowie, and they'll be in a familar role of favorite aboard Iron Liege.

The 4-year-old Calumet colt and nine others were lured to start in the John B. Campbell Memorial by gross prize money of $115,850, the most ever at stake for a handicap race in Maryland.

$75,302 For Winner

Tackling Iron Liege for the bulk of the take, $75,302 for first, will be Mrs. Ethel D. Jacobs' duo of Promised Land and Paper Tiger, Alfred G. Vanderbilt's Find, Gough Thompson's Go Lightly, W. H. Bishop's Bernburgoo, Ruffalo Brothers' Flying Chief, Livingston Stable's Ournav, Wayne Kendrick's King Challa, and Brookfield's Imagem.

It cost each owner $150 to nominate his horse and $850 more to start. Second place, less the $1,000 ante, will be worth $22,700, third $10,585.50 and fourth $4,792.50.

The Campbell distance is a mile and sixteenth and the track is expected to be good after the second day of unusual sunshine.

Iron Liege Favored

Iron Liege rates favoritism off his good performances of last year which included victory in the Kentucky Derby and four creditable races this winter in Florida. He won the McLennan and was second in three other Florida stakes to begin his career as Calumet's top handicap performer.

Promised Land shapes up as Iron Liege's most formidable challenger. Also a 4-year-old, he piled up $227,650 last year which he climaxed by winning four big races in as many weeks. He topped off a California winter of competition by winning the $100,000-added San Juan Capistrano on March 11.

Tim Tam Favored In Florida Derby

MIAMI (AP) — Only 10 owners elected to send their horses out against Calumet Farm's Tim Tam in Saturday's $100,000 added Florida Derby at Gulfstream Park.

And only one—John S. Kroese's Sir Robby—ran against Tim Tam in the Flamingo Stakes at the Florida Derby distance of a mile and a furlong on March 1. Sir Robby ran fifth that day.

Tim Tam won the Flamingo after a bumping duel with Maine Chance Farm's Jewel's Reward, who finished a head in front but was dropped to second on a disqualification.

Start Counting Takes Feature At Gulfstream

MIAMI, Fla., March 28 (AP)—John S. Phipps' Start Counting outgamed Can Trust by a neck in the $4,000 requested purse before 11,640 spectators today at Gulfstream Park.

Can Trust, owned by the Hasty House Farms, led Mrs. Fred Hooper's Volcanite by four lengths with A. B. Edgerly's In The Country four lengths further behind.

Start Counting, with Walt Blum aboard, paid $5.50 after running a mile and 70 yards in 1:42 2/5.

Blum sent Start Counting from fourth to first with a bold rush from the half mile pole to the eighth pole and that move carried him to a two-length advantage in midstretch.

Cardinals Trim Athletics, 4-2

WEST PALM BEACH, Fla. (AP)—The St. Louis Cardinals edged their Missouri cousins, the Kansas City Athletics, 4-2 Friday despite a pair of home runs by Hector Lopez, the A's slugging third baseman.

The Cardinals scored the winning run in the first of the ninth when Ben Valenzuela doubled home Curt Flood, who had singled. Valenzuela also scored on Hal Smith's single.

Lopez hit his sixth home run of the spring in the last of the ninth off Ben Flanigan, the winning pitcher who took over for starter Sam Jones in the seventh.

Hagerstown Plays First Contest Of Year Here May 25

The eighth annual invitation golf tournament of the Women's Golf Association of the Cumberland Country Club will be held Thursday and Friday, June 26 and 27, it was announced yesterday by Carroll Boggs, manager of the local club.

Dates for nine matches for the men's golf team of the local club also have been confirmed. Boggs stated that one or two more matches with out-of-town clubs may be added to the men's schedule.

Mrs. Glick 1957 Winner

Mrs. Maurice Glick, of Woodholme Country Club, Baltimore, is the defending champion in the women's invitation tourney in June. The Monumental City star posted a 156 for 36 holes last year to win a leg on the second Old Export Bowl donated by the Cumberland Brewing Company. Eighty players of 20 different clubs participated in the 1957 event.

Mary Ann Downey, Baltimore, retired the first Old Export Bowl by winning tournaments in 1953, 1954 and 1955. Mrs. John McCuskey, Clarksburg, W. Va., won the first tourney in 1951 and Mrs. Nancy Bycott, Wheeling, W. Va., was the victor in 1952. Capt. Lucille Busch, of San Diego, Calif., gained the first leg on the new bowl in 1956 and Mrs. Glick romped off with the honors last year.

Peeping Tom Beats 14 In Bowie Sprint

Joe Culmone Posts 27th Of Meeting

BOWIE, Md., March 28 (AP) — Ella K. Bryson's Peeping Tom left the maiden ranks in a big way in the $7,500-added Bowie Breeders' Stakes here today when he won from 14 rivals.

After the first 100 yards, Peeping Tom showed in front and opened up a substantial lead to win by five lengths from Charles T. Coburn's Another Wish, who was a half length in front of Allen Hummer's Kiperic, the 9-to-5 favorite.

Peeping Tom had failed to win in three previous outings, but showed much improvement in running the four-and-a-half furlongs of the Breeders Stakes in :54 4/5.

Joe Culmone, leading rider of the meeting who seems certain to hold that honor through tomorrow's closing program, handled Peeping Tom with a brisk handride and gained his 27th victory at this session.

The Bowie management announced this to be the last running of the stakes for 2-year-olds. Next season, the Bowie Breeders will be for locally-bred 3-year-olds.

Pirates Belt Robin Roberts

Klu Wallops 2 Of 5 Homers In 8-7 Tilt

CLEARWATER, Fla. (AP)—Robin Roberts gave up five home runs—four in one inning—today as the Pittsburgh Pirates took an 8-7 exhibition baseball game from the Philadelphia Phillies.

Roberts worked five innings, giving up all Pirate runs on 11 hits.

Catcher Danny Kravitz started the nightmare for Roberts in the third when he led off with a homer over the right field wall. Rookie pitcher Benny Daniels did likewise. Bill Virdon flied out, Dick Groat singled, Frank Thomas fouled out and then Ted Kluszewski belted a long home run. Johnny Powers also got one before the inning ended.

Pinch Hitters Win For Cleveland, 9-8

TUCSON, Ariz. (AP) — Cleveland Manager Bobby Bragan put on a pinch-hitter parade in the eighth and ninth innings Friday which gave the Indians a wild 9-8 exhibition victory over the San Francisco Giants.

Bragan used six sub batters in the two frames and four of them came through with hits for one run in the eighth and two in the ninth.

The winning run scored on Mickey Vernon's single which brought Fred Hatfield in from second. Both were pinch-hitters.

Cleveland collected 15 hits and the Giants 16 as each used four pitchers.

Calumet Silks To Appear For First Time At Bowie

Iron Liege Favored In John B. Campbell $115,850 Memorial

By GEORGE BOWEN

Bowie, Md. (AP) — Calumet Farm's famed devil red racing silks appear for the first time Saturday at 44-year-old Bowie, and they'll be in a familar role of favorite aboard Iron Liege.

The 4-year-old Calumet colt and nine others were lured to start in the John B. Campbell Memorial by gross prize money of $115,850, the most ever at stake for a handicap race in Maryland.

$75,302 For Winner

Tackling Iron Liege for the bulk of the take, $75,302 for first, will be Mrs. Ethel D. Jacobs' duo of Promised Land and Paper Tiger, Alfred G. Vanderbilt's Find, Gough Thompson's Go Lightly, W. H. Bishop's Bernburgoo, Ruffalo Brothers' Flying Chief, Livingston Stable's Ournav, Wayne Kendrick's King Challa, and Brookfield's Imagem.

It cost each owner $150 to nominate his horse and $850 more to start. Second place, less the $1,000 ante, will be worth $22,700, third $10,585.50 and fourth $4,792.50.

The Campbell distance is a mile and sixteenth and the track is expected to be good after the second day of unusual sunshine.

Iron Liege Favored

Iron Liege rates favoritism off his good performances of last year which included victory in the Kentucky Derby and four creditable races this winter in Florida. He won the McLennan and was second in three other Florida stakes to begin his career as Calumet's top handicap performer.

Promised Land shapes up as Iron Liege's most formidable challenger. Also a 4-year-old, he piled up $227,650 last year which he climaxed by winning four big races in as many weeks. He topped off a California winter of competition by winning the $100,000-added San Juan Capistrano on March 11.

Tim Tam Favored In Florida Derby

MIAMI (AP) — Only 10 owners elected to send their horses out against Calumet Farm's Tim Tam in Saturday's $100,000 added Florida Derby at Gulfstream Park.

And only one—John S. Kroese's Sir Robby—ran against Tim Tam in the Flamingo Stakes at the Florida Derby distance of a mile and a furlong on March 1. Sir Robby ran fifth that day.

Tim Tam won the Flamingo after a bumping duel with Maine Chance Farm's Jewel's Reward, who finished a head in front but was dropped to second on a disqualification.

Start Counting Takes Feature At Gulfstream

MIAMI, Fla., March 28 (AP)—John S. Phipps' Start Counting outgamed Can Trust by a neck in the $4,000 requested purse before 11,640 spectators today at Gulfstream Park.

Can Trust, owned by the Hasty House Farms, led Mrs. Fred Hooper's Volcanite by four lengths with A. B. Edgerly's In The Country four lengths further behind.

Start Counting, with Walt Blum aboard, paid $5.50 after running a mile and 70 yards in 1:42 2/5.

Blum sent Start Counting from fourth to first with a bold rush from the half mile pole to the eighth pole and that move carried him to a two-length advantage in midstretch.

Cardinals Trim Athletics, 4-2

WEST PALM BEACH, Fla. (AP)—The St. Louis Cardinals edged their Missouri cousins, the Kansas City Athletics, 4-2 Friday despite a pair of home runs by Hector Lopez, the A's slugging third baseman.

The Cardinals scored the winning run in the first of the ninth when Ben Valenzuela doubled home Curt Flood, who had singled. Valenzuela also scored on Hal Smith's single.

Lopez hit his sixth home run of the spring in the last of the ninth off Ben Flanigan, the winning pitcher who took over for starter Sam Jones in the seventh.

Board Orders Payments On School Budget

The Allegany County Board of Commissioners yesterday paid the eighth and ninth installments of the school budget which totaled $376,948.80.

The request for the funds was made in a letter from Ralph R. Webster, superintendent of schools.

The money was taken from county accounts in three banks, $100,000 each from the First National Bank and Second National Bank and $176,948.80 from the Liberty Trust Company.

A request was received from the Allegany County Bar Association for new lights in the record room at the Court House.

James Alfred Avirett, president of the association, and Leslie Clark, chairman of the committee handling the project, and Clerk of Court Joseph E. Boden met with the board.

A survey on the lighting needs in the record room, which has been improved by modern tables and cabinets, was outlined to the board.

The commissioners asked the Bar Association representatives to obtain an estimate of the cost of the project. If it is in excess of $1,000 it will have to be advertised for bids.

Six bids were received by the commissioners yesterday on group insurance coverage for county employes. The bids will be analyzed and a report given to the board next week by Henry Duke, local insurance man. Duke's agency is not one of the bidders on the group policy.

Bidders include Nationwide Insurance Company, North American Insurance Company, Life Insurance Company of Virginia, Connecticut General Insurance Company, Aetna Insurance Company and Blue Shield Hospitalization. The latter firm bid on the hospitalization coverage only.

The group policy includes life insurance, sickness and accident, and hospitalization.

Frostburg State College To Offer Summer School

President R. Bowen Hardesty of State Teachers College, Frostburg, announced the Board of Trustees of the Maryland State Teachers Colleges has approved a summer school for both graduate and undergraduate work at the Frostburg college.

The six weeks' session will begin Monday, June 23, and terminate Friday, August 1.

It is the first summer school for the institution in recent years.

The master of education degree at State Teachers College is designed primarily for those holding a bachelor's degree and who are certified to teach in Maryland. It includes both the elementary and junior high programs of teacher education.

Other groups which may be admitted to graduate work are: Those holding a bachelor's degree from a liberal arts college but not certified to teach in Maryland; those holding a bachelor's degree but not planning to work for a master's degree; those holding a bachelor's degree from an unaccredited college but desirous of working for certification in Maryland and those holding a bachelor's degree but seeking renewal for certification in Maryland.

The undergraduate program is designed for the following students: Those who were graduated from the two-year or three-year normal school and wish now to work toward a bachelor of science in education; those who hold a bachelor's degree in liberal arts and desire to qualify for certification for teaching in Maryland; those who are seeking a renewal of certificate; those who are transferees from other colleges and making program adjustments; those mature students who wish to accelerate their program; those who are seeking self-improvement in teaching, and those who are removing existing deficiencies.

Advance information has been mailed to all persons who have expressed interest in the graduate program. Such information is available by writing the registrar of admissions, Miss Elisabeth Hitchins, at the college. Those wishing to enroll for the forthcoming summer should make immediate inquiry.

The master's degree program was begun by members of the faculty of the college, with Dr. Margaret Lindsey, professor of education, Teachers College, Columbia University, and Dr. Harold D. Reese, supervisor of teacher and higher education, Baltimore, as consultants.

The last regular summer session as such was held in 1930.

During World War II, from 1942 to 1946, summer sessions were held to accelerate the program but were not regular summer sessions like the one now being inaugurated.

When the summer classes were discontinued in 1930, the college was a two-year state normal school. In 1933 the courses were advanced to three years and in 1934 the present four year courses were begun.

Two Damage Suits Filed

Two damage suits were filed in Circuit Court yesterday.

A suit, docketed by Walter Troxell Wiltison, 301 Walnut Street, Westernport, against Allen F. Kelly, trading as Kelly's Taxi in Westernport, asks $1,500 for damages to his car.

The declaration, filed by Attorney Horace P. Whitworth Jr., states that Wiltison's car was struck by a cab owned by the Kelly firm. It was alleged that the cab was operated at a high rate of speed and recklessly and hit Wiltison's car at the intersection of Rock Street and Vine Street.

Attorney Horace P. Whitworth Jr. filed the declaration which states the McKenzie boy was walking along State Route 135 on West Main Street in Lonaconing when he was hit by a car operated by Schramm. It is charged that the Schramm machine was driven in a reckless and negligent manner.

Damages of $2,500 are being asked for the boy's injuries which consisted of a concussion of the skull and abrasions of the head and left leg. The boy spent six days in Miners Hospital at Frostburg, according to the declaration.

Baltimore Street Bridge Expected To Open June 1

The new Baltimore Street Bridge will be open for traffic about June 1, a spokesman for the George F. Hazelwood Company, the contractor, said yesterday.

The concrete will be cured for two weeks before the blacktop surface is applied.

Gas and water mains have been placed under the bridge. Telephone lines will be carried on ducting through the sidewalk.

The bridge, 94 feet long and 42 feet wide, is being constructed as a part of the last phase of the Wills Creek channel work of the Cumberland flood protection project.

Rumors Of Bus Curtailment False

Cumberland Transit Lines yesterday branded as false a report that it was planning any curtailment of its routes.

Guy M. Davis, operator of the local transit company, said the firm has been the victim of a "rumor campaign" for the past couple of weeks.

Reports had circulated that the company planned to cancel all runs April 1. The report, he said, is completely false and no curtailment is planned.

Trinity Lutheran Youth Set Meeting

by John Crosby

Distinguished Original

On color television, the last act of "Little Moon of Alban," a Hallmark production starring Julie Harris and Christopher Plummer, was largely a symphony in subtly modulated whites — Miss Harris' Daughter of Charity cap set against white walls, white drapes, white sheets, with only the faces standing out brown, vivid and alive. White is much whiter and much more subtle on color television than on black and white television and this was a sort of living Utrillo on the color TV screens.

James Costigan's story, for all its flights of poetry and genuine feeling and perfectly marvellous scenes, was not so straight and true as the colors which were lovely. It opened tensely on a Dublin street where a blind piper and singer were singing instructions in code to a couple of Irish independence fighters in a loft. Then in swift scenes Miss Harris and her lover (George Peppard) were introduced and their happiness swiftly destroyed when he, on his way home from a church where he was being converted to Catholicism, was gunned down by English soldiers and died, spouting poetic farewells ("My life is running out the holes") at the foot of a statue.

"Take back your Holy water," shouted Miss Harris in a scene of striking and shocking power. "I'll come back no more to your deaf God. I deny Him!"

That renunciation of God was the end of Act 1, and a fine, swiftly moving, beautifully acted first act it was. Somewhere during the commercial, Miss Harris (or Brigid Mary as she was called) found her way back to God and at the opening of the second act was about to become a Daughter of Charity. Right here, the play lost direction, or, at any rate, changed direction and got a little misty. I rather thought it would take an act to win Brigid Mary back to the path of faith. Instead, in this act, she seemed intent mostly on winning her mother over to her way of thinking, something that didn't seem to have much dramatic point or urgency.

But then, at the end of her training, Brigid Mary was assigned to a hospital to tend the English who killed her father and her brother and her lover — and you begin to see the shape of things to come. At the very end of Act II a seriously wounded and deeply bitter and totally unbelieving English soldier, played by Christopher Plummer who rather specializes in that sort of personality, was wheeled in, denouncing the Irish, and the way was paved for a fine third act.

Against the white walls and white sheets and white courtyards, there ensued a battle to save the body and the soul of Mr. Plummer. It was a fine interplay of really skilled and passionate acting, with Miss Harris' soft Irish lilting lines contrasted strongly to the sharp British edge of Mr. Plummer's cynicism. In the end, he fell in love with the girl and pleaded with her not to renew her vows and to marry him. But God never loses these battles, not in the third act, anyhow, and sometimes I wish He would.

Plummer marched off, renewed in body and spirit, and she achieved a closer communion with God. It was a distinguished production, troubled only by that uncertainty of purpose at the beginning of the second act. Miss Harris, was, as usual, true as a blade and full of fire and a purity of line that has always marked her acting. Mr. Plummer, a fine foil to strike sparks off that blade, has great range and technical mastery. There were others — Barry Jones as a perpetually weary and gentle doctor, Frank Conroy as the priest, and Mr. Peppard as the unfortunate lover — and they were all splendid.

I'm happy that Hallmark which leans toward Shakespeare or toward other things of proven literary value, undertook an hour-and-a-half original television play like this one and shot the works on it all the way. Television hasn't had many distinguished originals this year. It's been a year full of "Green Pastures" and "Bridge of San Luis Rey" and so forth — all very welcome but not new. This had a freshness and emotional impact that has been largely missing this year.

"80 Days" Expected To Swell Todd Estate

NEW YORK (AP)—Producer Mike Todd left an estate of $250,000 in immediate assets and three to five million dollars in future income from his film, "Around the World in 80 Days," the Journal-American said Thursday.

The will of the showman, killed last Saturday in a New Mexico plane crash, will be filed in Surrogate's Court next week. It is expected his lawyers will place upon it a formal valuation of "over $20,000."

Food Prices Advance

NEW YORK (AP) — Wholesale food prices, as measured by the Dun & Bradstreet food index, advanced to a three year high this week.

At $6.70 the index was up three cents from last week and stood at its highest level since $6.77 in the week ended Feb. 8, 1955. This week's figure was 7.7 per cent higher than $6.22 in the same week last year.

Snow Removal Cost In County Is Major Item

The report of expenditures for repairs and maintenance of roads and bridges by the Allegany County Roads Department in February shows that snow removal and spreading of cinders, salt and cleaning ditches and drain pipes was the major item.

Total labor costs during the month were $18,836.31, materials, $1,004.94 and equipment, $4,293.25.

The work in the various districts and the total cost follows:

District 1, Orleans, $1,334.63; District 2, Oldtown, $852.51; District 3, Flintstone, $269.65; District 4, Cumberland area, $11.26; District 5, Cumberland area, $11.01; District 7, Rawlings, $43.28; District 8, Westernport, $22.74; District 9, Barton, $4.90; District 13, Mt. Local Marine Wins Regional Event

S Sgt. Brooke C. Atkinson, member of the Sixth Infantry Company, Marine Corps Reserve, was one of the two winners in the regional instructors' contest conducted in the Fifth Marine Corps Reserve and Recruitment District.

Sgt. Atkinson lectured on "Functions and Use of the Field Mask" in chemical warfare. He won the right to enter the regional event by being judged the best instructor in the local company.

133 New Voters Placed On Registration Books

The city registration office is having one of its best months with 133 new voters placed on the books, Mrs. Ruth Mangus, registration clerk, said yesterday.

By the time the month comes to an end Monday, Mrs. Mangus said it would not be surprising if the total reaches 150. Last month there were 47 new registrations and 87 in January, making a total of 267 for the three months.

The March registration has sent the number of eligible voters over the 11,000 mark. At the end of February there were 10,940 on the books. This month's registration has increased that figure to 11,073.

Despite the registration pickup, the number of eligible voters for the June 3 primary and June 17 general election is expected to be considerably less than the 15,070 eligibles for the last municipal balloting in 1954.

Several thousand were removed from the books during a recent revision because they had not voted in the past five years.

Any resident of the city for one year is eligible to register. To be eligible for this year's election, a resident must register by May 13.

Wallace G. Ullery, city clerk, has reminded new residents that they must register for both the county and city elections. The county registration office is at the Allegany County Court House, Washington Street, and the city registration office in the basement of City Hall with entrance off Bedford Street.

Salary Increase Is Questioned

An item in the budget of the state's attorney's office calls for an increase of $700 in the annual salary of Edwin R. Lilya, county investigator.

Commissioner Charles N. Wilkinson asked that a notation be inserted in the minutes of the board to the effect that Lilya is under the county Civil Service Board system and can only be paid what his classification calls for.

Wassail, a bowl of spiced ale served at Christmas, comes from an old English toast.

Board Orders Payments On School Budget

The Allegany County Board of Commissioners yesterday paid the eighth and ninth installments of the school budget which totaled $376,948.80.

The request for the funds was made in a letter from Ralph R. Webster, superintendent of schools.

The money was taken from county accounts in three banks, $100,000 each from the First National Bank and Second National Bank and $176,948.80 from the Liberty Trust Company.

A request was received from the Allegany County Bar Association for new lights in the record room at the Court House.

James Alfred Avirett, president of the association, and Leslie Clark, chairman of the committee handling the project, and Clerk of Court Joseph E. Boden met with the board.

A survey on the lighting needs in the record room, which has been improved by modern tables and cabinets, was outlined to the board.

The commissioners asked the Bar Association representatives to obtain an estimate of the cost of the project. If it is in excess of $1,000 it will have to be advertised for bids.

Six bids were received by the commissioners yesterday on group insurance coverage for county employes. The bids will be analyzed and a report given to the board next week by Henry Duke, local insurance man. Duke's agency is not one of the bidders on the group policy.

Bidders include Nationwide Insurance Company, North American Insurance Company, Life Insurance Company of Virginia, Connecticut General Insurance Company, Aetna Insurance Company and Blue Shield Hospitalization. The latter firm bid on the hospitalization coverage only.

The group policy includes life insurance, sickness and accident, and hospitalization.

Frostburg State College To Offer Summer School

President R. Bowen Hardesty of State Teachers College, Frostburg, announced the Board of Trustees of the Maryland State Teachers Colleges has approved a summer school for both graduate and undergraduate work at the Frostburg college.

The six weeks' session will begin Monday, June 23, and terminate Friday, August 1.

It is the first summer school for the institution in recent years.

The master of education degree at State Teachers College is designed primarily for those holding a bachelor's degree and who are certified to teach in Maryland. It includes both the elementary and junior high programs of teacher education.

Other groups which may be admitted to graduate work are: Those holding a bachelor's degree from a liberal arts college but not certified to teach in Maryland; those holding a bachelor's degree but not planning to work for a master's degree; those holding a bachelor's degree from an unaccredited college but desirous of working for certification in Maryland and those holding a bachelor's degree but seeking renewal for certification in Maryland.

The undergraduate program is designed for the following students: Those who were graduated from the two-year or three-year normal school and wish now to work toward a bachelor of science in education; those who hold a bachelor's degree in liberal arts and desire to qualify for certification for teaching in Maryland; those who are seeking a renewal of certificate; those who are transferees from other colleges and making program adjustments; those mature students who wish to accelerate their program; those who are seeking self-improvement in teaching, and those who are removing existing deficiencies.

Advance information has been mailed to all persons who have expressed interest in the graduate program. Such information is available by writing the registrar of admissions, Miss Elisabeth Hitchins, at the college. Those wishing to enroll for the forthcoming summer should make immediate inquiry.

The master's degree program was begun by members of the faculty of the college, with Dr. Margaret Lindsey, professor of education, Teachers College, Columbia University, and Dr. Harold D. Reese, supervisor of teacher and higher education, Baltimore, as consultants.

Ivan C. Diehl, dean of instruction at the college, is chairman of the graduate committee and coordinator of the program.

The last regular summer session as such was held in 1930.

During World War II, from 1942 to 1946, summer sessions were held to accelerate the program but were not regular summer sessions like the one now being inaugurated.

When the summer classes were discontinued in 1930, the college was a two-year state normal school. In 1933 the courses were advanced to three years and in 1934 the present four year courses were begun.

Two Damage Suits Filed

Two damage suits were filed in Circuit Court yesterday.

A suit, docketed by Walter Troxell Wiltison, 301 Walnut Street, Westernport, against Allen F. Kelly, trading as Kelly's Taxi in Westernport, asks $1,500 for damages to his car.

The declaration, filed by Attorney Horace P. Whitworth Jr., states that Wiltison's car was struck by a cab owned by the Kelly firm. It was alleged that the cab was operated at a high rate of speed and recklessly and hit Wiltison's car at the intersection of Rock Street and Vine Street.

Another suit was brought by Melvin Francis McKenzie, through his father, Joseph R. McKenzie, 76 Main Street, Lonaconing, against William C. Schramm, Barton.

Attorney Horace P. Whitworth Jr. filed the declaration which states the McKenzie boy was walking along State Route 135 on West Main Street in Lonaconing when he was hit by a car operated by Schramm. It is charged that the Schramm machine was driven in a reckless and negligent manner.

Damages of $2,500 are being asked for the boy's injuries which consisted of a concussion of the skull and abrasions of the head and left leg. The boy spent six days in Miners Hospital at Frostburg, according to the declaration.

Baltimore Street Bridge Expected To Open June 1

The new Baltimore Street Bridge will be open for traffic about June 1, a spokesman for the George F. Hazelwood Company, the contractor, said yesterday.

The deck of the span was poured today, with 110 tons of concrete going into the project.

The concrete will be cured for two weeks before the blacktop surface is applied.

Gas and water mains have been placed under the bridge. Telephone lines will be carried on ducting through the sidewalk.

The bridge, 94 feet long and 42 feet wide, is being constructed as a part of the last phase of the Wills Creek channel work of the Cumberland flood protection project.

Rumors Of Bus Curtailment False

Cumberland Transit Lines yesterday branded as false a report that it was planning any curtailment of its routes.

Guy M. Davis, operator of the local transit company, said the firm has been the victim of a "rumor campaign" for the past couple of weeks.

Reports had circulated that the company planned to cancel all runs April 1. The report, he said, is completely false and no curtailment is planned.

The firm was contacted after Mayor Roy W. Eves received an inquiry from a patron of the bus lines.

Trinity Lutheran Youth Set Meeting

Trinity Lutheran Church will be host to district officers of the Walther League today at 7 p. m.

The program will include a short vesper service and film, "The Big M," giving information on increasing attendance and methods augmenting work of youth of the church.

Television and Radio

Distinguished Original

On color television, the last act of "Little Moon of Alban," a Hallmark production starring Julie Harris and Christopher Plummer, was largely a symphony in subtly modulated whites — Miss Harris' Daughter of Charity cap set against white walls, white drapes, white sheets, with only the faces standing out brown, vivid and alive. White is much whiter and much more subtle on color television than on black and white television and this was a sort of living Utrillo on the color TV screens.

James Costigan's story, for all its flights of poetry and genuine feeling and perfectly marvellous scenes, was not so straight and true as the colors which were lovely. It opened tensely on a Dublin street where a blind piper and singer were singing instructions in code to a couple of Irish independence fighters in a loft. Then in swift scenes Miss Harris and her lover (George Peppard) were introduced and their happiness swiftly destroyed when he, on his way home from a church where he was being conconverted to Catholicism, was gunned down by English soldiers and died, spouting poetic farewells ("My life is running out the holes") at the foot of a statue.

"Take back your Holy water," shouted Miss Harris in a scene of striking and shocking power. "I'll come back no more to your deaf God. I deny Him!"

That renunciation of God was the end of Act I, and a fine, swiftly moving, beautifully acted first act it was. Somewhere during the commercial, Miss Harris (or Brigid Mary as she was called) found her way back to God and at the opening of the second act was about to become a Daughter of Charity. Right here, the play lost direction, or, at any rate, changed direction and got a little misty. I rather thought it would take an act to win Brigid Mary back to the path of faith. Instead, in this act, she seemed intent mostly on winning her mother over to her way of thinking, something that didn't seem to have much dramatic point or urgency.

But then, at the end of her training, Brigid Mary was assigned to a hospital to tend the English who killed her father and her brother and her lover — and you begin to see the shape of things to come. At the very end of Act II a seriously wounded and deeply bitter and totally unbelieving English soldier, played by Christopher Plummer who rather specializes in that sort of personality, was wheeled in, denouncing the Irish, and the way was paved for a fine third act.

Against the white walls and white sheets and white courtyards, there ensued a battle to save the body and the soul of Mr. Plummer. It was a fine interplay of really skilled and passionate acting, with Miss Harris' soft Irish lilting lines contrasted strongly to the sharp British edge of Mr. Plummer's cynicism. In the end, he fell in love with the girl and pleaded with her not to renew her vows and to marry him. But God never loses these battles, not in the third act, anyhow, and sometimes I wish He would.

Plummer marched off, renewed in body and spirit, and she achieved a closer communion with God. It was a distinguished production, troubled only by that uncertainty of purpose at the beginning of the second act. Miss Harris, was, as usual, true as a blade and full of fire and a purity of line that has always marked her acting. Mr. Plummer, a fine foil to strike sparks off that blade, has great range and technical mastery. There were others — Barry Jones as a perpetually weary and gentle doctor, Frank Conroy as the priest, and Mr. Peppard as the unfortunate lover — and they were all splendid.

I'm happy that Hallmark which leans toward Shakespeare or toward other things of proven literary value, undertook an hour-and-a-half original television play like this one and shot the works on it all the way. Television hasn't had many distinguished originals this year. It's been a year full of "Green Pastures" and "Bridge of San Luis Rey" and so forth — all very welcome but not new. This had a freshness and emotional impact that has been largely missing this year.

"80 Days" Expected To Swell Todd Estate

NEW YORK (AP)—Producer Mike Todd left an estate of $250,000 in immediate assets and three to five million dollars in future income from his film, "Around the World in 80 Days," the Journal-American said Thursday.

The will of the showman, killed last Saturday in a New Mexico plane crash, will be filed in Surrogate's Court next week. It is expected his lawyers will place upon it a formal valuation of "over $20,000."

Food Prices Advance

NEW YORK (AP) — Wholesale food prices, as measured by the Dun & Bradstreet food index, advanced to a three year high this week.

At $6.70 the index was up three cents from last week and stood at its highest level since $6.77 in the week ended Feb. 8, 1955. This week's figure was 7.7 per cent higher than $6.22 in the same week last year.

133 New Voters Placed On Registration Books

The city registration office is having one of its best months with 133 new voters placed on the books, Mrs. Ruth Mangus, registration clerk, said yesterday.

By the time the month comes to an end Monday, Mrs. Mangus said it would not be surprising if the total reaches 150. Last month there were 47 new registrations and 87 in January, making a total of 267 for the three months.

The March registration has sent the number of eligible voters over the 11,000 mark. At the end of February there were 10,940 on the books. This month's registration has increased that figure to 11,073.

Despite the registration pickup, the number of eligible voters for the June 3 primary and June 17 general election is expected to be considerably less than the 15,070 eligibles for the last municipal balloting in 1954.

Several thousand were removed from the books during a recent revision because they had not voted in the past five years.

Any resident of the city for one year is eligible to register. To be eligible for this year's election, a resident must register by May 13.

Wallace G. Ullery, city clerk, has reminded new residents that they must register for both the county and city elections. The county registration office is at the Allegany County Court House, Washington Street, and the city registration office in the basement of City Hall with entrance off Bedford Street.

Salary Increase Is Questioned

An item in the budget of the state's attorney's office calls for an increase of $700 in the annual salary of Edwin R. Lilya, county investigator.

Commissioner Charles N. Wilkinson asked that a notation be inserted in the minutes of the board to the effect that Lilya is under the county Civil Service Board system and can only be paid what his classification calls for.

Wassail, a bowl of spiced ale served at Christmas, comes from an old English toast.

In Memoriam

In loving memory of Harlan B. Norris, who passed away 3 years ago, March 29, 1955.

Days of sadness are still with us,
Tears in silence often flow,
Memory keep you ever near us,
Though you left 3 years ago.
You are gone but not forgotten,
And our hearts ache for you still,
Forgotten perhaps by others,
But by us you never will.
Sadly missed by Wife, Zellene, Son, Daughters and Sisters.

In loving memory of our dear mother, Mary A. Koontz, who passed away 12 years ago, March 29th, 1946.

Sunshine passes, shadows fall,
Love's remembrance outlasts all,
And though the years be many or few
They are filled with remembrance
Dear Mother of you.

Sadly missed by Son and Daughter-in-law, George and Mary Koontz.

In Memoriam

In loving memory of Harlan B. Norris, who passed away 3 years ago, March 29, 1955.

Days of sadness are still with us,
Tears in silence often flow,
Memory keep you ever near us,
Though you left 3 years ago.
You are gone but not forgotten,
And our hearts ache for you still,
Forgotten perhaps by others,
But by us you never will.
Sadly missed by Wife, Zellene, Son, Daughters and Sisters.

In loving memory of our dear mother, Mary A. Koontz, who passed away 12 years ago, March 29th, 1946.

Sunshine passes, shadows fall,
Love's remembrance outlasts all,
And though the years be many or few
They are filled with remembrance
Dear Mother of you.
Sadly missed by Son and Daughter-in-law, George and Mary Koontz.

Randolph Out Of Hospital

NEW MARTINSVILLE, W. Va (AP) — Democrat Jennings Randolph left a hospital here, where he has been under treatment for auto mishap injuries, Thursday and turned again to plans for his political campaign.

Randolph is seeking Democratic nomination to the U. S. Senate for the unexpired portion of the late Sen. M M Neely (D-WVa) of Fairmont.

He and Rep. Robert C. Byrd (D-WVa) of Sophia were injured March 16 on W. Va 2 near here when a car Randolph was driving was in collision with another. The occupant of the other vehicle was killed.

Dr. K M. Hornbrook of the Wetzel County Hospital said X-rays had disclosed a slight fracture in Randolph's left hip bone, but that "rapid recovery" from that injury was anticipated.

Byrd was less seriously hurt. Randolph said he would announce soon from his Elkins home the date on which he would open his state campaign headquarters for the August primary, and the site for such activity.

House Of Lords Seat Now Available

LONDON (AP) — Lord Grey de Ruthyn, 74-year-old president of the League Against Cruel Sports, can sit in the House of Lords any day he likes now.

His lawyers have run down a copy of the long-lost birth certificate of his mother, who was born in 1858 in Edinburgh.

Russian Tourists

LONDON (AP) — The Soviet Union is raising the Iron Curtain to let more Russians get a look at the other side. Radio Moscow said 7,000 will make tourist trips abroad in the next three months. Seven hundred will cruise European waters in May aboard the passenger ship Gruziya.

Randolph Out Of Hospital

NEW MARTINSVILLE, W. Va (AP) — Democrat Jennings Randolph left a hospital here, where he has been under treatment for auto mishap injuries, Thursday and turned again to plans for his political campaign.

Randolph is seeking Democratic nomination to the U. S. Senate for the unexpired portion of the late Sen. M M Neely (D-WVa) of Fairmont.

He and Rep. Robert C. Byrd (D-WVa) of Sophia were injured March 16 on W. Va 2 near here when a car Randolph was driving was in collision with another. The occupant of the other vehicle was killed.

Dr. K M. Hornbrook of the Wetzel County Hospital said X-rays had disclosed a slight fracture in Randolph's left hip bone, but that "rapid recovery" from that injury was anticipated.

Byrd was less seriously hurt. Randolph said he would announce soon from his Elkins home the date on which he would open his state campaign headquarters for the August primary, and the site for such activity.

Without it he couldn't take his seat though he got the centuries-old title 19 years ago.

Keeping Up With Hollywood

by Louella Parsons

HOLLYWOOD, March 28 (INS) —Seemes as if Joanne Woodward has everything—a devoted husband, Paul Newman; the highest honor that can be paid a Hollywood actress, the Academy Award for the best actress of the year; and a studio with plans for her.

Buddy Adler told me how he happened to sign Joanne. He said he saw her on a Dick Powell TV show and went to Darryl Zanuck and said he thought 20th Century-Fox should put Joanne under contract.

"All right," said Darryl, "if you thing she has talent. But what have you got for her?"

At that time Buddy said he had nothing but 20th signed her, then loaned her to Columbia. "Later Nunnally Johnson agreed with me that this girl has exceptional talent and we put her in 'Three Faces of Eve'," went on Buddy. "I sent Darryl a cable tonight telling him Joanne had won the Oscar."

"I've traveled 25,000 miles since I last talked with you," Mel Ferrer told me when I saw him at the Academy Awards. "I went directly from scouting locations for 'Green Mansions' in Venezuela and Colombia to Rome to see Audrey."

Mel said his bride, Audrey Hepburn, who is starring in "The Nun's Story," has her mother, brother and sister-in-law with her in Rome. A Belgian priest is working with director Fred Zinnemann so that this picture will be correct from religious standpoint.

Mel also told me that Harry Belafonte gets here Monday to start "The End of the World," which Mel will direct for MGM before he films "Green Mansions."

There'll be no battle between Marlon Brando and George Stevens over "Ride Comancheros," the title Marlon planned to use in his picture even after George had protested it was too similar to "Comancheros," the Paul Wellman novel which George bought.

Brando has 123 pages of script finished, but his office says if there is any objection on Stevens' part after they change the title, Marlon, who planned to make this picture in July, will abandon the project.

I have just heard some news about Miyoshi Umeki who won the Oscar for best supporting performance by an actress in "Sayanara." Miyoshi had some agents representing her who were taking most of the money she made and when she rebelled they threatened to send her out of the country. She was sent to attorney Robert Eaton who dismissed the agents and straightened out her tangled affairs.

I'd like to see Miyoshi in "Madame Butterfly."

Snapshots of Hollywood collected at random:

Academy Award winner for best direction, David Lean, will soon marry East Indian Leila Makar, who accompanied him to the academy festivities wearing her native dress, a white sari trimmed in gold.

As soon as he finishes "The Journey" with Deborah Kerr, Yul Bryner must undergo a tonsillectomy. Bad tonsils kept him from flying to the Academy Awards from Vienna.

Bob Crosby's daughter, Cathy, sent Bob a telegram on his opening in Las Vegas saying, "Best on your opening and much continued success," which made Bob very happy.

Anna Maria Alberghetti's boy friend, Carey MacGuire, unexpectedly arrived in time for the Academy Awards but she already had a date with Buddy Bergman so he took sister Carla to the affair.

Frank Sinatra stands well with the Italians. After he received the Boys Town of Italy award he was taken to the Italian consulate where he received another big award. He gets home by plane Monday.

Nobody is surpriced about Debra Paget's break up with David Street. They broke up long before she admitted it.

Deacon Clinic Is Scheduled

A clinic for deacons will be sponsored next week at LaVale Baptist Church by the deacons of that congregation.

The opening session will be held Monday at 7:30 p. m. with a different guest speaker each night from the Baptist churches in this area. The clinic will be held for the Western Baptist Association but the public is invited.

The schedule of speakers and subjects:

Wednesday—Rev. R. L. Keefe, pastor of Grace Baptist Church, "The Deacon and the Church Membership" and "The Deacon and the Worship Service."

Thursday — Rev. Wesley Harris, pastor of Welsh Memorial Baptist in Frostburg, "The Deacon and Church Administration" and "The Deacon's Faith."

Friday — Rev. Cornelius B. Davis, pastor of Second Baptist Church, "The Deacon's Home" and "The Deacon's Wages."

The program next week will be in charge of John D. Coleman, chairman of the board of deacons at LaVale church.

Aluminums Show Decline In Sluggish Stock Market

NEW YORK (AP) — Aluminums continued to decline on price cut news in Friday's mixed and sluggish stock market.

The overall statistics had a slight edge to the upside at the close but it was far from enough to rescue the market from its first weekly decline in four weeks.

Volume dwindled to 1,930,000 shares compared with 2,140,000 yesterday and was the lightest since 1,810,000 shares changed hands March 3.

Most changes were very narrow and quite a few leading issues were unchanged. Among the aluminums and some chemicals the losses approached a point. A few special situations made wider moves.

The Associated Press average of 60 stocks edged up 20 cents to $162.70 with the industrials up 20 cents, rails unchanged and utilities up 20 cents to a new high for the year.

Of 1,129 issues traded, 443 rose and 391 fell. New highs for 1958 totaled 64 and new lows 14.

Of the 15 most active stocks, 7 rose and 6 fell with 2 unchanged.

Beckman Instruments was most active stock, up 2⅛ on 60,100 shares. Second was Mathieson, off 1⅛ at 35⅞ on 34,100 shares. Third was Aluminium Ltd., off ¼ at 29⅛ on 27,500 shares.

Next came Safeway Stores, off ¼ at 30, and Alleghany Corp. common off ⅛ at 4⅞.

The jump by Beckman was ascribed by brokers to technical factors involving the elimination of a large supply of Beckman stock for sale. Olin Mathieson is shutting its government-owned plant at Morgantown, W. Va., because of higher costs and increasing competition.

Aluminium Ltd., the big Canadian producer of aluminum which announced a price cut for the metal yesterday, continued under selling pressure. Today Alcoa, the major U.S producer, announced a price cut and it fell a point. Reynolds Metals, which also dropped prices, fell ¾ in active dealings.

Today marked the resumption of trading in Alleghany Corp. 6 per cent preferred which has been suspended since June 1955 when an injunction was obtained against its issuance. The injunction was vacated by a federal court yesterday.

The stock was issued for exchange with the company's 5½ per cent preferred. The new preferred closed at 17⅝ compared with its 1955 final price of 35¼.

American stock exchange prices were mixed on volume of 710,000 shares compared with 730,000 yesterday. Gainers included Diners' Club, Creole Petroleum and Thiokol. Among losers were Scurry-Rainbow Oil, Molybdenum and Anacon Lead Mines.

Keeping Up With Hollywood

by Louella Parsons

HOLLYWOOD, March 28 (INS) —Seemes as if Joanne Woodward has everything—a devoted husband, Paul Newman; the highest honor that can be paid a Hollywood actress, the Academy Award for the best actress of the year; and a studio with plans for her.

Buddy Adler told me how he happened to sign Joanne. He said he saw her on a Dick Powell TV show and went to Darryl Zanuck and said he thought 20th Century-Fox should put Joanne under contract.

"All right," said Darryl, "if you thing she has talent. But what have you got for her?"

At that time Buddy said he had nothing but 20th signed her, then loaned her to Columbia. "Later Nunnally Johnson agreed with me that this girl has exceptional talent and we put her in 'Three Faces of Eve'," went on Buddy. "I sent Darryl a cable tonight telling him Joanne had won the Oscar."

"I've traveled 25,000 miles since I last talked with you," Mel Ferrer told me when I saw him at the Academy Awards. "I went directly from scouting locations for 'Green Mansions' in Venezuela and Colombia to Rome to see Audrey."

Mel said his bride, Audrey Hepburn, who is starring in "The Nun's Story," has her mother, brother and sister-in-law with her in Rome. A Belgian priest is working with director Fred Zinnemann so that this picture will be correct from religious standpoint.

Mel also told me that Harry Belafonte gets here Monday to start "The End of the World," which Mel will direct for MGM before he films "Green Mansions."

There'll be no battle between Marlon Brando and George Stevens over "Ride Comancheros," the title Marlon planned to use in his picture even after George had protested it was too similar to "Comancheros," the Paul Wellman novel which George bought.

Brando has 123 pages of script finished, but his office says if there is any objection on Stevens' part after they change the title, Marlon, who planned to make this picture in July, will abandon the project.

I have just heard some news about Miyoshi Umeki who won the Oscar for best supporting performance by an actress in "Sayanara." Miyoshi had some agents representing her who were taking most of the money she made and when she rebelled they threatened to send her out of the country. She was sent to attorney Robert Eaton who dismissed the agents and straightened out her tangled affairs.

I'd like to see Miyoshi in "Madame Butterfly."

Snapshots of Hollywood collected at random:

Academy Award winner for best direction, David Lean, will soon marry East Indian Leila Makar, who accompanied him to the academy festivities wearing her native dress, a white sari trimmed in gold.

As soon as he finishes "The Journey" with Deborah Kerr, Yul Bryner must undergo a tonsillectomy. Bad tonsils kept him from flying to the Academy Awards from Vienna.

Leslie Caron's ex-husband, Geordie Hormel, heir to the meat packing fortune, and his new wife are the parents of a daughter born in Austin, Minnesota.

Bob Crosby's daughter, Cathy, sent Bob a telegram on his opening in Las Vegas saying, "Best on your opening and much continued success," which made Bob very happy.

Anna Maria Alberghetti's boy friend, Carey MacGuire, unexpectedly arrived in time for the Academy Awards but she already had a date with Buddy Bergman so he took sister Carla to the affair.

Frank Sinatra stands well with the Italians. After he received the Boys Town of Italy award he was taken to the Italian consulate where he received another big award. He gets home by plane Monday.

Nobody is surpriced about Debra Paget's break up with David Street. They broke up long before she admitted it.

Aluminums Show Decline In Sluggish Stock Market

NEW YORK (AP) — Aluminums continued to decline on price cut news in Friday's mixed and sluggish stock market.

The overall statistics had a slight edge to the upside at the close but it was far from enough to rescue the market from its first weekly decline in four weeks.

Volume dwindled to 1,930,000 shares compared with 2,140,000 yesterday and was the lightest since 1,810,000 shares changed hands March 3.

The jump by Beckman was ascribed by brokers to technical factors involving the elimination of a large supply of Beckman stock for sale. Olin Mathieson is shutting its government-owned plant at Morgantown, W. Va., because of higher costs and increasing competition.

Commissioners Reduce Budgets About $48,000

Open Hearing Is Conducted

Allegany County's Board of Commissioners, determined to find ways and means of slashing county budgets for the 1958-59 fiscal year starting July 1, appeared last night to have found the way to reduce budgets by at least $48,000.

This action was taken at the commissioners' first open budget hearing in years. In the past it had been the practice for the county commissioners to meet behind closed doors until establishing the county tax levy and rate, which was announced on the third Tuesday in April.

Last night's meeting was open to the public at the request of Commissioner William A. Wilson, who contended that the public must pay the taxes to provide the county funds and should be aware of the commissioners' efforts to keep spending down.

Three Appear

Three major departments heads appeared at last night's meeting at the Court House. They were Mrs. Elinor M. Westerfeld, director of the Welfare Department; Ralph R. Webster, superintendent of schools, and Dr. Ton van Strien, head of the Health Department.

After Mrs. Westerfeld's defense of her budget calling for the county to spend $191,673.10 or $8,472 more than the $183,201.10 this year, the commissioners decided it would be poor economy to reduce her budget at all.

She explained that only 15.57 per cent of her new budget comes from the county whereas 16.08 per cent of the present budget is from county sources. Her overall budget is up $83,250.89 to $1,039,064.49 with the county paying only about one-tenth of the boost.

Mr. Webster, although observing that some services will have to be curtailed somewhat if the school budget of $1,929,000 in county money is reduced, nevertheless pointed out where some $25,000 might be pared off in the least painful manner.

Items which will be cut to provide the $25,000 are the elimination of $5,000 capital outlay for new equipment, eliminating of a $13,000 item for school lunch food, $3,000 reduction for adult education and $4,000 for school maintenance. The superintendent emphasized that if he found federal subsidies and the volume of available surplus foods reduced he might have to ask the county commissioners for some of the additional food money. No child will suffer because of the budgetary change, they all emphasized.

Defends Budget

Dr. van Strien defended his budget calling for $81,101.53 in the coming fiscal year. That is $28,101.53 more than the $57,000 budgeted this year but another $19,000 had to be added by the county when the City of Cumberland refused to provide the $19,000 for the health budget. That means a $9,101.53 increase actually proposed by Dr. van Strien.

Commissioner James Orr contended that the health department did not need an additional sanitarian, another nurse and another stenographer, whose total salaries would be $9,480 a year. The county provides only 40.8 per cent of the health department funds. Mr. Orr also suggested that the mental health budget should be retained at $13,000 rather than be increased to $25,288.

Dr. van Strien contended that the increase is necessary to keep the part time services in this county of Dr. David E. Edwards, a psychiatrist on the staff of Spring Grove State Hospital. Fred H. Anderson, magistrate for juvenile causes, defended the increase contending that only upon the advice of a trained child psychologist can he make intelligent decisions in many cases. He and Dr. van Strien both emphasized that the public will be paying more in increased costs as a result of increased crime if this budget item is reduced. No action was taken on the health department budget.

A number of the minor budgets were cut last night by Commissioners Orr and Wilson. Among these were $300 of the Circuit Court budget to $5,270; $1,500 off the state's attorneys' budget to $2,710; $1,000 off the Board of Election Supervisor's budget to $36,593; $3,054.08 off the assessing department budget to $38,188.57; $4,880 off the forestry department budget to $5,710; and a total of $11,265 off the budgets for the county infirmary, county home and Sylvan Retreat, mainly through the elimination of certain capital improvements.

Mrs. Johanna N. Sills, county auditor, and Gorman E. Getty, county attorney, attended last night's session with Commissioners Orr and Wilson. Commissioner Charles N. Wilkinson was not there.

Three equity suits have been filed in Allegany County Circuit Court. The bills of complaint were titled Orlean M. Frantz vs. Donald H. Frantz, Norma L. Appel vs. Mason A. Appel Jr. and Kathleen L. Jenkins, a minor, by Hazel M. Robinson, her mother and next friend, vs. Charles E. Jenkins.

Child Custody Appeal Goes To High Court

Former Local Man Seeks Daughter

ANNAPOLIS (AP)—A former Cumberland man asked the Court of Appeals Friday to give him custody of a 10-year-old daughter living with her maternal grandparents in Cumberland.

James C. Trenton, 31, and his second wife appealed from a decision of the Allegany County Circuit Court allowing Mr. and Mrs. Philip T. Christ to retain custody of the girl, Cynthia, after her mother was killed in an automobile accident last May.

Trenton, who lives in Menominee, Mich., was divorced from his first wife, the former Patricia Christ, in 1951. He remarried in 1952.

The first Mrs. Trenton was awarded custody of Cynthia by the divorce decree. She lived with her daughter at the Christs until she was killed.

After the accident Trenton wanted Cynthia to come live with him, but she and her grandparents refused. He then filed legal proceedings.

In denying his suit, Circuit Judge George Henderson said nothing in the case implied any of the parties are unfit to have custody.

He concluded that "the natural right of the father to have his own daughter (is) outweighed by the desirability of having her remain at this time with the grandparents in whose home she has been since she was about two years old."

After talking with Cynthia about her preferences, Judge Henderson found "the best interests of the child do not justify a change of custody" at this time.

Appeal briefs filed by attorneys for the Trentons objected to the admission of testimony by a doctor and a priest regarding the effect a change of custody might have on the child.

The high court took the case under advisement.

Plans For Soil Stewardship Week Begun

The observance of Soil Stewardship Week was discussed yesterday afternoon during a meeting of the Allegany Soil Conservation District Supervisors, who met at the office of County Agent Joseph M. Steger.

Floyd Buser of Warrior Mountain, chairman of the supervisors, presided. The observance will be held May 11 to May 18, according to Mr. Buser, who said sermons from church pulpits will emphasize the need for conservation work.

Also discussed was the revision of the program work plan for the Soil Conservation Service of the county. Martin M. Gordon, acting work unit conservationist for the SCS in Allegany County, submitted his monthly report.

He pointed out that his office made livestock water pond surveys on the farms of Thomas Barton, Pinto, and Mark Schriver, Paw Paw, during March.

Contour strips were laid out on the Earl Stonestreet farm along Murley's Branch. Richard Zeamer of Westernport, who has a 14-acre farm on Stoney Run Road, became a district cooperator and is interested in a farm pond as well as a land treatment program.

Three women of Allegany County took the oath of allegiance yesterday afternoon during a quiet but impressive naturalization ceremony in the Court House before Chief Judge Morgan C. Harris.

Joseph E. Boden, clerk of the court, administered the oath, which was repeated by Mrs. Eva Marie (Rommel) Imes and Mrs. Pauline (Reuter) Ware, both natives of Germany, and Mrs. Assunta (Prato) Cordaro, who was born in Italy.

F. Alfred Petersam, naturalization examiner of the Immigration and Naturalization Service of the U. S. Department of Justice, recommended to Judge Harris that the three women be admitted to citizenship.

After the oath of allegiance had been given, Judge Harris said the "magnitude of the action cannot be over-estimated." He said that "next to the love of God is love of country."

Explaining the Declaration of Independence and Constitution as the two great documents of this country, Judge Harris pointed out that the Republic has endured for 171 years. Upon closing, Judge Harris congratulated the new citizens and expressed hope they will "be happy," and be good citizens and participate in government affairs.

One silent spectator in the serene surroundings of the court room was Susan Annette Imes, nine-weeks-old daughter of Mrs. Imes, who didn't whimper once during the entire proceedings.

The Johnson Company, according to the lease, will pay $11,250 rental fees per year for the 20-year period with the understanding the building and improvements are duly certified by the restaurant firm's architect as being complete in accordance with plans and specifications.

The razing of the old building on the corner began some time ago in preparation for the construction of a new building to house the local five-and-ten-cent store.

School Polio Immunization Plan Dropped

Will Be Available In Health Clinics

The Allegany County Health Department has no plans for giving polio vaccine injections to school children, according to Dr. Ton van Strien, county health officer.

Polio vaccine shots will, however, be available as usual in Health Department clinics he said, for those who rely on the Health Department for all health supervisory services.

Current plans, he added, are subject to revision by health authorities.

The announcement marks the end of the mass immunization program against polio which began in 1955 and has provided protection against poliomyelitis to virtually every student in public and parochial schools of this county.

Federal Vaccine Gone

Federal funds for polio vaccine, Dr. van Strien said, are no longer available and supplies used in the current Health Department program are financed by the county and state on a 40-60 basis.

In order to keep up a high percentage of the county's immunization level, he said, those not eligible for polio immunization through the Health Department are strongly urged to seek the protection from their private physicians.

A drop in the immunization-protection level, he explained, may have serious consequences in the future in spite of the fact that a high protection level would eventually eradicate the disease.

The school polio program began here in 1955, shortly after supplies of the vaccine were released.

The first vaccine — enough to supply first and second shots to first and second graders — was supplied by the National Foundation for Infantile Paralysis.

Students Protected

Last year, the Health Department and the Board of Education worked out a plan to provide polio vaccine to all school children of the county.

The big immunization program was accomplished chiefly with Salk polio vaccine purchased by the federal government and supplied through the State Health Department.

Dr. van Strien said that by the end of 1957 all but a few of the school children had taken advantage of the opportunity to obtain the three-injection protection, either from their private physicians, in the schools or in Health Department clinics.

County Board Gets Complaints

The complaint department of the Allegany County Board of Commissioners had a little business on the agenda yesterday morning.

Some 20 residents of Ellerslie signed a letter which informed the commissioners that Green Street in that community is in "bad condition" for a distance of 200 feet.

The street "has never been improved with crushed stone or with any other hard surfacing," and has created a hardship on residents, the letter stated.

The petitioners asked the commissioners to have an inspector go over the road and take whatever action is necessary. The residents were told to contact J. Walker Chapman, county roads supervisor.

Cecil B. Moore requested in another letter that holes in Potomac Hollow Road in Barton be fixed. He reported he blew out a vehicle tire and broke an axle on the road.

Mrs. William Farrell of the Mt. Savage area said that on February 11 a county cinder truck demolished a gate on her property and she is seeking means to have it repaired.

Chester Ranker, Lake Avenue, LaVale, reported that water was washing away the roadway and asked that the situation be remedied.

Commissioners Reduce Budgets About $48,000

Open Hearing Is Conducted

Allegany County's Board of Commissioners, determined to find ways and means of slashing county budgets for the 1958-59 fiscal year starting July 1, appeared last night to have found the way to reduce budgets by at least $48,000.

Child Custody Appeal Goes To High Court

Former Local Man Seeks Daughter

ANNAPOLIS (AP)—A former Cumberland man asked the Court of Appeals Friday to give him custody of a 10-year-old daughter living with her maternal grandparents in Cumberland.

James C. Trenton, 31, and his second wife appealed from a decision of the Allegany County Circuit Court allowing Mr. and Mrs. Philip T. Christ to retain custody of the girl, Cynthia, after her mother was killed in an automobile accident last May.

Trenton, who lives in Menominee, Mich., was divorced from his first wife, the former Patricia Christ, in 1951. He remarried in 1952.

The first Mrs. Trenton was awarded custody of Cynthia by the divorce decree. She lived with her daughter at the Christs until she was killed.

After the accident Trenton wanted Cynthia to come live with him, but she and her grandparents refused. He then filed legal proceedings.

In denying his suit, Circuit Judge George Henderson said nothing in the case implied any of the parties are unfit to have custody.

He concluded that "the natural right of the father to have his own daughter (is) outweighed by the desirability of having her remain at this time with the grandparents in whose home she has been since she was about two years old."

After talking with Cynthia about her preferences, Judge Henderson found "the best interests of the child do not justify a change of custody" at this time.

Appeal briefs filed by attorneys for the Trentons objected to the admission of testimony by a doctor and a priest regarding the effect a change of custody might have on the child.

The Trentons are Baptists but had agreed to rear Cynthia as a Catholic, her mother's faith.

Plans For Soil Stewardship Week Begun

The observance of Soil Stewardship Week was discussed yesterday afternoon during a meeting of the Allegany Soil Conservation District Supervisors, who met at the office of County Agent Joseph M. Steger.

Floyd Buser of Warrior Mountain, chairman of the supervisors, presided. The observance will be held May 11 to May 18, according to Mr. Buser, who said sermons from church pulpits will emphasize the need for conservation work.

Also discussed was the revision of the program work plan for the Soil Conservation Service of the county. Martin M. Gordon, acting work unit conservationist for the SCS in Allegany County, submitted his monthly report.

He pointed out that his office made livestock water pond surveys on the farms of Thomas Barton, Pinto, and Mark Schriver, Paw Paw, during March.

Three Women Of County Take Oath Of Allegiance

Three women of Allegany County took the oath of allegiance yesterday afternoon during a quiet but impressive naturalization ceremony in the Court House before Chief Judge Morgan C. Harris.

Joseph E. Boden, clerk of the court, administered the oath, which was repeated by Mrs. Eva Marie (Rommel) Imes and Mrs. Pauline (Reuter) Ware, both natives of Germany, and Mrs. Assunta (Prato) Cordaro, who was born in Italy.

F. Alfred Petersam, naturalization examiner of the Immigration and Naturalization Service of the U. S. Department of Justice, recommended to Judge Harris that the three women be admitted to citizenship.

After the oath of allegiance had been given, Judge Harris said the "magnitude of the action cannot be over-estimated." He said that "next to the love of God is love of country."

Explaining the Declaration of Independence and Constitution as the two great documents of this country, Judge Harris pointed out that the Republic has endured for 171 years. Upon closing, Judge Harris congratulated the new citizens and expressed hope they will "be happy," and be good citizens and participate in government affairs.

One silent spectator in the serene surroundings of the court room was Susan Annette Imes, nine-weeks-old daughter of Mrs. Imes, who didn't whimper once during the entire proceedings.

Leases of 20 and 30 year durations on property in Cumberland and along U. S. Route 40 west of here have been filed in the land records office of Allegany County Circuit Court.

Building and land improvement by Harry E. Kettering of Fairmont, W. Va., have been leased for 20 years to the Howard D. Johnson Company, a Massachusetts corporation, which will conduct a restaurant business on Route 40 west of Cumberland.

The Johnson Company, according to the lease, will pay $11,250 rental fees per year for the 20-year period with the understanding the building and improvements are duly certified by the restaurant firm's architect as being complete in accordance with plans and specifications.

In a 30-year lease, McMullen Brothers, leased property at Baltimore and North George streets to the G. C. Murphy Company, a Pennsylvania firm.

The razing of the old building on the corner began some time ago in preparation for the construction of a new building to house the local five-and-ten-cent store.

The lease will be in effect from May 1, 1957 until April 30, 1987. Monthly rent from May 15,1957 until April 15 this year was set at $2,500, and rent from May 15, 1958 through April 30, 1987 will be $3,000 a month.

School Polio Immunization Plan Dropped

Will Be Available In Health Clinics

The Allegany County Health Department has no plans for giving polio vaccine injections to school children, according to Dr. Ton van Strien, county health officer.

Polio vaccine shots will, however, be available as usual in Health Department clinics he said, for those who rely on the Health Department for all health supervisory services.

Current plans, he added, are subject to revision by health authorities.

The announcement marks the end of the mass immunization program against polio which began in 1955 and has provided protection against poliomyelitis to virtually every student in public and parochial schools of this county.

Federal Vaccine Gone

Federal funds for polio vaccine, Dr. van Strien said, are no longer available and supplies used in the current Health Department program are financed by the county and state on a 40-60 basis.

In order to keep up a high percentage of the county's immunization level, he said, those not eligible for polio immunization through the Health Department are strongly urged to seek the protection from their private physicians.

A drop in the immunization-protection level, he explained, may have serious consequences in the future in spite of the fact that a high protection level would eventually eradicate the disease.

The school polio program began here in 1955, shortly after supplies of the vaccine were released.

The first vaccine — enough to supply first and second shots to first and second graders — was supplied by the National Foundation for Infantile Paralysis.

Students Protected

Last year, the Health Department and the Board of Education worked out a plan to provide polio vaccine to all school children of the county.

The big immunization program was accomplished chiefly with Salk polio vaccine purchased by the federal government and supplied through the State Health Department.

Dr. van Strien said that by the end of 1957 all but a few of the school children had taken advantage of the opportunity to obtain the three-injection protection, either from their private physicians, in the schools or in Health Department clinics.

County Board Gets Complaints

The complaint department of the Allegany County Board of Commissioners had a little business on the agenda yesterday morning.

Some 20 residents of Ellerslie signed a letter which informed the commissioners that Green Street in that community is in "bad condition" for a distance of 200 feet.

The street "has never been improved with crushed stone or with any other hard surfacing," and has created a hardship on residents, the letter stated.

The petitioners asked the commissioners to have an inspector go over the road and take whatever action is necessary. The residents were told to contact J. Walker Chapman, county roads supervisor.

Cecil B. Moore requested in another letter that holes in Potomac Hollow Road in Barton be fixed. He reported he blew out a vehicle tire and broke an axle on the road.

Mrs. William Farrell of the Mt. Savage area said that on February 11 a county cinder truck demolished a gate on her property and she is seeking means to have it repaired.

Chester Ranker, Lake Avenue, LaVale, reported that water was washing away the roadway and asked that the situation be remedied.

All three matters were referred to Mr. Chapman.
